Marx Takes Ginger Rogers To Visit Her Husband At Camp

Ellery Queen Solves Puzzler Without Leaving Apartment In "Adventure Of Man With The Red Beard"

Groucho Marx takes the screen star Ginger Rogers to Camp Elliott, San Diego, where her husband, Jack Briggs, is stationed, on the "Blue Ribbon Town" broadcast on Saturday at 10:15 p. m. (EWT) over station WABC. It's rumored Ginger is planning some special doings for the camp during her visit.

Ellery Queen demonstrates his versatility as a detective by solving his puzzler without even leaving his apartment Saturday (WEAF, 7:30 p. m., EWT). Ellery puts himself in the same position as his armchair detective guests by never visiting the scene of the crime or seeing the corpse. He solves the "Adventure of the Man with the Red Beard" by pure logic.

Will the United Nations remain as united in their peace aims as they are in war? Can the ties of their common cause remain undissolved as they seek to build a new world without war? Such questions will emerge when "United Nations" becomes the discussion topic on "For This We Fight" Saturday (WEAF, 7 p. m. EWT).

Leo Litwin, well-known pianist, will be the soloist during the Boston Pops orchestra broadcast over WJZ on Saturday, at 8:15 p. m., EWT. Arthur Fiedler conducts the orchestra.

Curly Williams and his Georgia Peach Pickers, comparative newcomers to the "Grand Ole Opry," make another guest appearance on that series, on Saturday, at 10:30 p. m., EWT, over Station WEAF.

Three men from the Frankford Arsenal in Philadelphia and three women, workers at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, comprise the opposing teams for the Frank Crumit-Julia Sanderson quiz, when it airs on Saturday, at 8 p. m. EWT over Station WABC.

Duke Ellington will be guest conductor and featured pianist on "The Million Dollar Band" Saturday (WEAF, 10 p. m. (EWT).
