Previews of TODAY'S NETWORK TV

Today's top television shows as previewed by TV Key's staff in New York City and Hollywood:

Sugarfoot-6:30 p. m.-7-
"The Bullet and the Cross." Primarily a two-character play nicely performed by Will Hutchins and Charles Bronson. Tom is trapped in an abandoned mine with a suspected murderer. The two men get the drop on each other so often that the show resembles a volley ball game, but the ending is well handled and it's worth watching over-all.

Fisher-Gobel Show-7 p. m.-8-
Last show of the season, and an enjoyable one. Oscar Levant, blinking again, is back to talk, and plays more Gershwin for us. He also accompanies Eddie and Debbie Reynolds in a medley of pop tunes. George Gobel and Dick Shawn are on hand for laughs. [Color]

Wyatt Earp-7:30 p. m.-8-Earp finally captures the last of the drygulchers that murdered his Indian friend. Altho this four part series started out with promise, it dissolved into nothing around the middle of "Three." Wyatt Earp-7:30 p. m.-7 to justice. If you've seen the other episodes in this series, however, you'll want to see this one, even tho the performances, except for the regulars, are not up to par.

Red Skelton Show - 8:30 p. m.-9-
Amusing show. Red turns his slapstick on television quiz show prizes tonight. He and Marilyn Maxwell win a house on TV and are supposed to live in it for a month. You can imagine the number of booby traps the house has, and Red hasn't left many out.
