Previews of TODAY'S NETWORK TV

Friday's top television shows as previewed and selected by TV Key's staff in New York City and Hollywood:
Rawhide—7 p. m.—channel 2—"Incident of the Curious Street." Trail Driver Gil Favor bumps into more women on his cattle drive in this one. On the lookout for stray cows, he finds a woman and her daughter.
Ellery Queen—7 p. m.—5—"The Small Elect." A good tight cast adds quality to this interesting if routine whodun-

it. It's a tale about an on the spot murder with all suspects in full view and Ellery goading them into revealing their secret loves and hates. Edna Best, Judith Evelyn, Edward Andrews, Happy Felton, and Russell Nype build their characters nicely, but the ending lacks the punch their story deserves. [Color.]
Swing Into Spring—8 p. m.—2—"Good jazz from Benny Goodman and his talented guests, including Ella Fitzgerald, Peggy Hampton, the Hi-Lo's, and Benny's new find, Donna Musgrove. Benny does himself proud for his 25th anniversary as a band leader.

77 Sunset Strip—8:30 p. m.—7—"Honey from the Bee." West coast Communists are after a tapestry owned by an impoverished Russian refugee countless and their methods are direct and brutal. Private Eye Bailey can't prevent the violence and is more of an observer than an effective detective in this case.
