Dear Mr. & Mrs. New York,

Tonight I have the unique honor of presenting the television premiere of the N.Y. Drama Critics Circle Award Play of 1957—tart, outrageously funny Jean Anouilh comedy, "The Waltz of the Toreadors". This force, at once startling and exuberant, stars an excellent company—Hugh Griffith, Mildred Natwick, Beatrice Straight and John Abbott—with direction by Stewart Burge.

I guarantee you an exciting and hilarious television experience.

Sincerely,
 David Susskind

P.S. Please send the children to bed early.
