Clarence Goers, 180-pound fullback, and Roggenbauer should provide the Gold with the two outstanding backs in the conference. Both are triple threat men and Goers has been a regular for three seasons. Graduation Hits Mills Lake Mills lost heavily through graduation, its biggest loss being a heavyweight line, and although a heavy forward wall will be missing this fall the Gold team will by no means be lightweight. All of the lettermen are heavier but the team as a whole will be somewhat lighter than last years and Capicik will probably employ a new offensive.

Milton Union's success lies in how Coach Carl Anderson copes with the situation of rebuilding the backfield, as all of the first string backs and many of the reserves were lost through graduation. But the outlook for a winning combination is a rosy one. Nine lettermen are back as well

Coach Carl Hager of Jefferson is optimistic about his team's pros-The league coaches would have pects. He too has only five lettersound reasons for naming Lake men around which to build his Mills to repeat this fall. The Gold team and his biggest problem is to uncover capable successors to Les Pruefer, husky tackle, and Bob Tensfeldt, 210-pound center. Don Chawala, Dick Wagner, Bob Statz, and Cliff Smilie formed a fine backfield quartet in the team's 7-0 loss to the State School for the Deaf team last week. Smilie is one of the best aerial tossers in the league, however, and undoubtedly the Jeffs will be playing a passing game as their best offensive.

Coach Fred Richmond, who was under Irl Tubbs when the Iowa mentor was at Superior, has deof his team making a bid for the title. He has five lettermen, namely, Don Walsh, Jim Wilcox, Dan Mitchell, Merlin Hare, and Art Calkins as the neucleus for his eleven and has two excellent new prospects in Paul Hodge, 170pound fullback who transferred from an Indiana school, and Dan Davis, 170-pound lineman, who is working at center. In all, 23 can didates are reporting. Mitchell is a four letterman while Walsh is the only back among the returnmonogram winners. Candidates:

Rooney Denies Friction Among Football Pirates

PITTSBURGH —(U.P.) — Owner Art Rooney of the Pittsburgh Pirates professional football team today denied rumors of dissension among his players, rumors heightened by release of backs Johnny Karcis and Izzy Weinstock and Center Billy Wilson.

'The release of the three players last Sunday was decided upon by Coach Johnny Blood," Rooney said. "The football team is on his hands and anything he does to help pull it out of the losing streak is a. k. with me. I intended to stand back of him . . ."

The Pirates to date have lost three games and won none, despite acquisition of Byron (Whizzer) White, All-American from Colorado university, who is getting $15,000 for one season of play, the highest salary ever paid a pro-fessional football player.
