Sensational Film Now On Sigma Screen

Sabu, the handsome East Indian youngster who made a sensational screen debut in "Elephant Boy," makes his second film appearance heading the cast of "Drums" Alexander Korda's thrilling technicolor i drama of intrigue and romance on India's Northwest frontier, at the Sigma theatre Featured with Sabu are Raymond

Massey, Roger Livesey, Desmond Tester and Valerie Hobson in this adaptation of the A E W Mason story of a box's loyalty and a woman's courage in a land of scething intrigues. "Drums" casts Sabu as little

Prince Azim, who is menaced by a power-crazed uncle, Prince Ghul, (Raymond Massey), who has muidered Azim's father and plots to: filch the boy's throne and rid his country of British rule. Sabu strikes up a friend-hip with a little Scottish disummer boy (Desmond Teste) whose regiment has been sent to India, under the courageous Captain Carruthers (Roger Livesey), to put down the uprising being fomented by Prince

The two hoys arrange a private drum signal, for use in time of danger, and thru this Sahu is onabled to foil his uncle's plot, save the regiment from the machine gun slaughter the madman had planned as the fiendish climan to a fiveday ceremonial feast, and regain his rightful place on the throne.

Lovely Valerie Hobson plays the only Western woman in a world of thousands of men as the bride who courageously accompanies Caluthers on this dangerous mission to India's farthest-flung outpost

The breath-taking natural color shots of India's treacherous Khyber Pass, were actually filmed in the historic gateway to the plains of India, which no motion picture camera had hitherto penetrated.

Spades are the worst suit of cards in the deck as used in fortune felling. They denote treachery, disappointment, ill luck, and even death.
