BANNERS FLY IN DANZIG

Portent of the manner in which Adolf Hitler may choose to "solve"

the Danzig "problem" is this display of swastika flags near the Free City's ancient City Hall. European chancellories believe the thousands of Nazis pouring into Danzig may try Hitler's now familiar internal coup and declare their "home" is in the Reich.

Constance Bennett Also Scheduled On Crooner's Hour: Late Dramatist Herne To Be Honored

Two of America's foremost dialect comedians will come together when Rudy Vallee presents Jack Pearl and, for the sixth consecutive time, Lou Holtz, on his WEAF program Thursday at 7 p. m. Jack Pearl, creator of the celebrated radio character, Baron Munchausen, will revive the dormant teller of tall tales for the Vallee audience.

Another guest on this program will be the lovely Constance Bennett, elder of the famed Bennett sisters and daughter of the veteran stage actor, Richard Bennett.

As a fitting tribute to the late James A. Herne, famous Nineteenth Century dramatist, on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of his birth, the National Broadcasting Co. has selected his "The Minute Men of 1774" as the first production in its elaborate series of America's Lost Plays which will be presented over WEAF Thursdays from 8 to 9 p. m.

The playwright is the father of Julie and Chrystal Herne, both of whom are famous in the contemporary theatre. He is best remembered for "Shore Acres" and "Sag Harbor," which were laid in his beloved New England. "The Minute Men," another of his most popular works was, until recently, believed irrevocably lost. It has just been uncarthed after four years of research work by Barrett H. Clark, executive director of the Dramatists' Play Service, who worked in cooperation with the Authors' League of America and the Dramatists' Guild and with the financial assistance of the Rockefeller Foundation. It will be printed for the first time with other unpublished plays by Herne in a 20-volume edition of America's Lost Plays soon to be issued by the Princeton University Press. "The Minute Men" was first produced on April 6, 1886, at the Walnut Street theatre in Philadelphia with Herne in the leading role. Subtitled "An Original Military Comedy-Drama." it is really a melodiama in the original sense of the term, that is, a drama with incidental melodies. Experts in their own fields, but rank amateurs in another.

Martha Raye, accomplished comedienne of the "Tuesday Night Party' is studying to be a nurse. Edward G. Robinson, star of the "Big Town" radio drama, is an mmateur artist. Dick Powell, host of "Tuesday Night Party." takes lessons in underwater fishing with goggles and Martha Mears, CBS early morning songbird, attends a sewing rlass sponsoied by a department store. Leon Leonardi, crudite commoser-conductor of "The Grouch Club." takes Jupanese lessons from a neighbor's houseboy.

David Brockman, baton wielder for the Wednesday variety show, dabbles in the perfume distiller's

Don Pundle, comedy writer for screen and radio, is learning how to use the typewriter properly after a decade of "hunting and pecking."
