Notes

When entry figures are announced for the annual state pintourney to be held in Madison starting March 8th, this city's reputation as one of the greatest bowling centers in the country will be further enhanced. It was believed that the record entry of 1,709 teams in Janesville last year would hold up for years, but according to that great little promoter and organizer, Johnny Bossart, state tournament manager, 1300 teams have already requested reservations. With six weeks remaining before the deadline there is little doubt but what the Capital City meet will set a new record. Incidentally the Wisconsin tourney is the biggest gathering of its kind and is second only to the world famous national classic.

The Straus printers checked in with their second consecutive 3,000 in the classic league when they spilled 3,-016 on games of 986, 963 and 1,067. Scotty Skidmore and Bill Lee were the big shots in the Siraus attack with 636 and 630. Slim Bob Robinson topped the honor roll with a fine 662 on 235, 256 and 171. The only other honor keglers were Vic Oakey with 620 and Russ Bartholomew with 609 ... Erv Showers headed the Celon group with a 598, with Bill Slightam counting 528 in the Milwaukee road loop. In the Madison Alley booster wheel Erv Bliese was pace-setter with 593, with Dick Sagen adding 563, Herb Yost 571, Jack Staudt 526 and Don Hoff 527. The leading main king tap rooms were high teams with 2,467....Action slowed down at the East Side Arcade. The lone honor kegler was Harry Helman with 608 in the industrial. In the recreation
