Al Pearce Will Start New Program On Friday Evening

Series Scheduled Over WABC At 6:30 P. M.; lack Benny Will Be Guest On Ripley's "Believe It Or Not" Hour

Al Pearce, famous as Elmer Blurt, the low-pressure salesman who made the country "I hope, I hope, I hope" conscious, begins a new series of weekly broadcasts over WABC on Friday. The new series will be heard at 6:30 p. in.

Jack Benny takes the spotlight on Bob Ripley's "Believe It Or Not" program on Friday at 9:30 over WABC.

The program will emanate from Ripley's fabulous Odditorium on Broadway, with Jack exchanging banter with Ripley. Ripley's glittering array of oddities, both living and inanimate, mementoes of his 30 years of travel to far-off places, undoubtedly will offer targets for Jack's trigger wit.

NEW OFFICERS ARE PICKED BY MINSTER CLUB

(Special To The Lina News)
MINSTER, May 3 — John F. Herkenhoff was re-elected president of the Minster Commercial club at the annual meeting. Other officers named were Louis Hafner, vice president and William G. Thieman, secretary.

Three new directors, Robert Schmieder, Daryl Sharp and Wilfred Boecker, were elected to the board, succeeding A. L. Heinl, W. J. Herkenhoff and Louis Hoying, the retiring members. Directors who hold over are Len Frericks, Louis Hafner and Alex

One application for membership, that of Cade Schulenberg of New Bremen, was approved. The club heard a speech by Robert Lehmkuhl, Minster high school vo-agriculture student, titled "Effect of War on Farm Products." with which he won a district Future Farmer of America contest.
