With a new and piquantly beautiful star for its heroine, and Charles Laughton in the most fascinatingly sinister role of his career, "Jamaica Inn," the new Paramount release, is now at the Lyric theatre.

The girl is 18-year-old Maureen O'Hara, selected by Laughton and Director Alfred Hitchcock to play this important lead m her first feature film role. Miss O'Hara is romantically

A stirringly dramatic climax serves to bring the wreckers to justice and leads to the capture of Laughton aboard an English packet on which he had hoped to escape to Paris. Alfred Hitchcock directed "Jamaica Inn," which was produced by Charles Laughton in collaboration with Erich Pommer. "Lone Star Pioneers," thrill-packed Bill Elliott vehicle, is also at Lyric theatre. The new film, in which Lorothy Gulliver is seen as Elliott's leading lady, tells of the west shortly after the Civil War, when Texas soldiers returned to their homes to find themselves "guerillas." #### Big Musical Extravaganza At Majestic .

"Dancing Co-Ed," which is now at the Majestic theatre, brings Artie Shaw, idol of the jitterbug world, to the screen for the first time in his sensational swing career. Featured with Lana Turner and Richard Carlson, Shaw and his famous band contribute to a madcap story that sweeps from Hollywood to college and back in what is said to be one riotous round of swing rhythm and dance.

"Dancing Co-Ed" is based on Albert Treynor's magazine story of the same name and revolves around the plan of a Hollywood press agent to plant a pretty vaudeville hoofer in college in order to win a national contest to discover the best dancing co-ed, with the idea of her playing the lead in a motion picture and thereby geiting plenty of publicity for the production. Certain that the "ringer" will win, the press agent hires Artic Shaw and his band and the story is off in a whirl of excitement. When the vaudeville dancer falls in love with a college editor, he finds that she is a ringer and has her kidnaped, and
