Symphonic composer Mickey Rooney, who's not bad as a movie actor either, will hear the premiere performance of one of his own compositions tonight on one of America's most famous radio programs of fine music — the Sunday Evening hour. The work is a trilogy called "Melodante" and two excerpts from it—"Melody in Autumn" and "Humoresque" — will be played on the program.

(Of Radio Committee, Madison Branch, American Association of University Women) Two girls stopped in front of a theater showing "Pygmalion". They had difficulty pronouncing the name. Then one exclaimed, "Oh, come on. I'm not going in here. I can't even stand the smell of pork".

Odds are that this girl sincerely believes that anything educational might be heavy or stuffy, and she wants none of it. Although our radios pour many hours of cultural knowledge at us, it will be found that most of them are entertaining and fun.

Much has been done in the appreciation of music, but not until four years ago did the National Broadcasting co. conceive a series of programs, called "Great Plays", designed for students and patrons of the theater. These programs trace the development of drama from the sunrise performances in ancient his plays, and a general descrip

Special! Curtain

Discount

Last Day Saturday, February 15th

Save One-Fifth Now!

Don't wait until spring to have your curtains cleaned; the longer they hang, full of dust, the more they rot and fall to pieces. Send them to us now, while this discount is in effect and you'll give them longer life, and of course they will look like new. We measure every curtain when it comes in, so that they will be the same size when they go out. We use no pins, hooks, etc., to mar their beauty. And we guarantee to
