"Four Jacks And A Jill" Stars Ray Bolger And Anne Shirley; Second Film Is New "Hopalong" Cassidy Hit

The heetic adventures of four musicians in a swing band and their beautiful songstress, provide the basis of the sparkling musicomedy, "Four Jacks and a Jill," commencing Wednesday at the Sigma theatre. Ray Bolger and Anne Shirley have the leading roles of the film. The co-feature, "Stick To Your Guns," stars William Boyd in the role of

"Hopalong" Cassidy. Tuesday's fare includes "Wild Bill Hickok Rides" and "All American Co-Ed."

Roger Pryor portrays the role of wide-awake newspaper man who unwittingly falls into the arms of too many ladies and too many enemies at one and the same time in "South of Panama," now at the Lyric theatre. Virginia Vale appears as his pick of the lot. Another story built around a newspaper worker, only this time is the co-feature, "The Wore Crutches," starring Ted North and Lynne Roberts.

"Woman of the Year," currently at the Ohio and starring Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn. tells the story of the love of a sports editor for a brilliant feminine newspaper columist, their roles. Famous and active in public life, the bride is named the most important woman of the year. Her career and the inevitable clash of strong personalities leads the story to a surprising Claudette Colbert has the role of Nora Trinell, one of her most dramatic characterizations, in "Remember the Day," the current attraction at the Quilna theatre. Hilarious complications develop when a notorious gangster falls m love with the pretty entertainer and becomes jealous of the musician. But a strange little street gamin with a lovely voice also falls for him, extricates him from a dangerous situation and when the band's vocalist quits her job up a far better engagement, with herself as featured soloist.

Six tuneful melodies by Mort to the swift-moving story which reaches a hilarious finale when a pseudo-king makes love to both singers, almost estranges the orchestra leader from his sweetheart and causes the jealous gunman to take vengeance on the entire band. Desi Arnaz, Jack Durant, Jack Briggs, Eddie Foy, Jr., and many other screen and stage favorites are also featured in "Four Jacks and a Jill."

Stirring all-out range warfare animates the latest "Hopalong" Cassidy outdoor drama, "Stick to Your Guns," which also commences at the Sigma theatre Wednesday. William Boyd, shooting it out with a band of rustlers or tracking his prey across the plains, is excellent again in the role of reckless "Hoppy," who has an answer at his command or a gun at his side for every situation. Andy Clyde tops his remarkable series of appearance as "California," doughty and dour aide-de-camp to the indefatigable "Hoppy."

LYRIC

Starring Roger Pryor and using the Panama Canal as background, Producers Releasing Corp. has fashioned a swiftly moving, exciting and altogether happy screen offering "South of Panama" which opens Tuesday at the Lyric theatre.
