"Great Moments In Music" Program Time Is Moved Up

Popular Show Will Be Heard Now At 10 P. M. Wednesday; Quiz Kids Will Celebrate 100th Broadcast

"Great Moments In Music", Columbia's half-hour program which presents selections from the greatest of the world's music, will be heard 15 minutes earlier, at 10 p. m., each Wednesday evening beginning May 20, over WABC.

The program, which stars Jean Tennyson, Jan Pearce, Robert Weede, and the orchestra and chorus directed by George Sebastian, has been presented at 10:15 p. m. in the past. During its first season on the air, it has achieved recognition from many schools which have established it as an extra-curricular study for music students.

During the coming weeks, "Great Moments in Music" will present the best of the melodic works of Romberg, Friml, Herbert, Kern, De Koven, Straus, Lehar and Kalman. Roger Lyons will continue as program annotator.

With Shirley Temple, as Judy Graves, invited to her first formal evening party, mild pandemonium reigns in the household only to be followed by a state of utter chaos when Judy mysteriously refuses to go and promptly breaks out in a threatening rash on the Wednesday "Junior Miss" broadcast at 9 p. m.

Taking issue with accepted standards of social behavior as set forth by Emily Post, Judy sees no reason why her own invitation shouldn't include her friend Fluffy, and she flings a shattering ultimatum into the face of time-honored tradition, with the result that parties are something which Mr. and Mrs. Graves don't want to discuss for a long time to come.

The Quiz Kids program will celebrate its 100th broadcast on Wednesday at 8 p. m. over the Blue network, by welcoming, as guest of honor, Father Flanagan, of Boys Town.

In the absence of Chief Quizzer Joe Kelly, Claude Brenner, 13, will fire the brain twisters at the quiz-whizzers.

Guest smartie will be Reyna Cooper, 15, of New Haven, Conn., musician, historian and English student. Regulars will be Ruth Duskin, 7, Shakespearean expert; Richard Williams, 12, math whiz; Harve Fischman, 11, jack of all knowledge, and Jack Lucal, 15, political science scholar.

Former President Herbert Hoover will address the National Industrial Conference Board at the annual dinner to be held in the grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, New York City, on Wednesday. His speech, "The Limitations on Freedom in War," will be broadcast over the Blue network from 9 to 9:30 p. m.

SCHINE THEATRE ANTI-MONOPOLY SUIT POSTPONED

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 20 — (AP)—Postponement for two years of the government's anti-monopoly suit against the Schine theatre chain was approved today by Federal Judge John Knight who signed a temporary order providing that the circuit, meanwhile, divest itself of 15 theatres in 13 communities.

The order was presented as the trial was scheduled to open on the complaint, filed Aug. 7, 1939, which alleges the chain, thru operation of a string of theatres, established an illegal monopoly.

Robert L. Wright of the justice department's anti-trust division told the court the defendants "have consented to give up within one year from today all their interests in 15 theatres in 13 different towns acquired since the filing of this suit."

The agreement provides that the theatres will be offered to exhibitors who operated them immediately prior to their acquisition by the Schine theatres, Wright asserted. If the former owners do not accept the offer within 20 days, the theatres may be sold to "independent exhibitors generally."

TEACHERS PRAISED

COLUMBUS, May 20—(AP)—Price Administrator Leon Henderson, praising Ohio's school teachers for their help in registrations for sugar rationing, telegraphed Gov. John W. Bricker: "No other group in the country could have handled the job so efficiently and speedily."

There are 51 mountain peaks more than 14,000 feet high in Colorado.

LONE MAN ALIVE AFTER 43 DAYS ON LIFERAFT; TWO OMPANIONS PERISH

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, May 20 — (UP) — One died from exposure and exhaustion. Another went out of his mind and leaped into shark-infested waters.

That was part of the story told today by Michael Wajda, 28-year-old electric engineer, of New York City, the survivor of three men who climbed onto a life raft after their ship was shelled and torpedoed by an enemy submarine in the Atlantic.

For 46 days, the raft drifted with the winds and currents. Then it was sighted off the Guiana coast. When a rescue boat reached it, Wajda could hardly speak, his sight was impaired and his body had been burned black by sun and exposure.

Medical examination showed also that he had shell wounds on his left ankle and right temple and a badly bruised cheek and right hip. Nevertheless, physicians at the hospital where he is a patient, said he would live.

Mahlon R. Benton of North Carolina, second engineer on the torpedoed vessel, died first — of exposure. Eleven days later, Third Engineer Lindgren Bancroft of New York City, could endure no more and leaped into the sea.

Their ship sank quickly and the three climbed onto one of its life rafts which was stocked with water and food, including a small supply of concentrated chocolate. After a few days the food grew mouldy and spoiled.

They had been drifting 14 days, when Benton became ill. Soon he was unable to swallow. On the 24th day, he died.

To supplement their rations, Bancroft improvised a small net with twine and caught fish. These they ate raw.

A new menace suddenly appeared. The discarded parts of the fish attracted sharks, which trailed the raft night and day.

Bancroft became unable to take food. The 35th day he lost his mind and attempted to jump overboard. Wajda reasoned with him, twice hurled him back on the raft. But lack of food had made Wajda weak, and Bancroft plunged at last into the sea.

UNIQUE PLAYLET TO BE FEATURE OF HOMECOMING

A musical playlet entitled "Musical Memories," arranged by Mrs. C. Elmer Miller, will be one of the features of the homecoming and formal reopening of the remodeled building at the First United Brethren church, Spring and Union, Sunday afternoon.

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. L. H. Mussman with Clyde Stitt as organ accompanist, will present the musical numbers and the character parts will be taken by Rev. and Mrs. Miller. Many of the old familiar songs such as "Silver Threads Among the Gold," "Love's Old Sweet Song," "Memories," "Down By The Garden Gate," "I Love You Truly," "Sweetheart," "Sweetest Story Ever Told," and "The End of a Perfect Day," will be sung by members of the choir in appropriate costumes, and the boys and girls Chapel choir, directed by Mrs. K. L. Parent, will assist in the program appearing in their new vestments.

Violin solos will be given by Miss Marjorie Dawson, and Stitt will present several numbers on the pipeorgan, which has been completely rebuilt.

Twin Horror Bill To Open At The State On Thursday

"The Mad Doctor Of Market Street" And "Wolf Man" Are Offerings; Bob Hope Continues To Make Merry At The Ohio

A gruesome duo of "fright" pictures are to be unleashed Thursday at the State theatre. The goose-flesh provoking features "The Mad Doctor of Market Street" and "Wolf Man." The perennial crazy-physician theme is well executed in this first film, while a masterpiece of photographic makeup characterizes the werewolf "hero" is the second offering.

At the Ohio theatre Bob Hope pitches the customers out in the runways with his eye-bulging brand of humor. The Hope springs eternally new gags. The sequence involving a penguin and a Pullman sleeper practically caused me to tear out several rows of seats. Incidentally, Madeleine Carroll as the "hush-hush" heart-interest character puts quite a neat edge on this spy comedy.

A pair of foreign importations, Michele Morgan and Paul Henried, handle the suspense and romance in "Joan of Paris," the electrifying picture that is shown for the first times Wednesday at the Sigma theatre. Another spy-hunt film, "Fly By Night" is the go-along specialty on the same program.

The terrorizing of the countryside by a batch of Nazis who are stranded on North America after their submarine is destroyed forms the background of "The Invaders" now at the Quilna theatre. Laurence Olivier, Leslie Howard and Raymond Massey play the leads.

Bela Lugosi, the "Dracula" horror specialist and child-frightener supreme steps into the oriental realms to show just how foul those "yaller fellers" are in their private life. This expose of the Jap "death society" a charming little fraternal order, is entitled "Black Dragons." The Lyric's second presentation is "Broadway Big Shot."

BETTER FORGET YOUR FISHING TRIP TO CANADA

COLUMBUS, May 20 — (UP) —If you're planning a trip to Canada this year, you'd better forget about going by automobile.

State Highway Director Hal G. Sours said today that new gasoline rationing regulations in Canada limit the amount which may be sold to United States motorists in that country to 20 gallons.

Sours also announced that Gov. Bricker had given "the green light" to truckers carrying war materials thru Ohio.

"It is the intention of the state highway department to see that there will be no delays," Sours said. "Whenever a necessary emergency request for defense hauling is made, permits are immediately granted and up to date no hauler has been subject to any delay by the highway patrol."
