

Fine New Picture To Open On Sigma Screen Wednesday

"Always In My Heart" Features Gloria Warren, Walter Huston, Kay Francis And Frankie Thomas In Leads

In addition to uncovering a glorious voice which is the property of one Gloria Warren, the new film, "Always In My Heart" which commences Wednesday at the Sigma, provides an entertaining story and a cast that includes Walter Huston, Kay Francis and Frankie Thomas. "I Was Framed" is the co-featured picture, the story of a reporter framed on a murder charge. Showing for the last times Tuesday are "The Great Man's Lady" and "Our Russian Front."

College, as it never was but as Hollywood likes to picture it, is the background for "Rise and Shine," the new film at the Lyric theatre. Jack Oakie, Linda Darnell, Milton Berle and Walter Brennan are a few of the characters sprinkled on the mythical campus. The co-feature moves to a different secondary school for a story of the Bumstead family, "Blondie Goes to College."

Spencer Tracy, Hedy Lemarr and John Garfield are the stars of the current Ohio film "Tortilla Flat," a bit of morbid John Steinbeck woven around a Mexican community. In addition to the stars there is some fine character acting provided by Akim Tamiroff, Frank Morgan, Donald Meek, John Qualen and Allen Jenkins.

Glenn Ford portrays the two-fisted title role of "Adventures of Martin Eden," now at the Quilna. The film is devised to produce some corpse jumping among thrill seekers. Claire Trevor, Stuart Erwin and Evelyn Keyes appear prominently. The co-feature, "Sweetheart of the Fleet" stars Joan Davis, Jim Falkenburg and Joan Woodbury.

A rough idea of what most men would like to be doing thru the winter months is provided in "Bushman Passage" in which Lucky Stirling Hayden does it for us. That is, court a beauty like Madeleine Carroll, clad in a sarong and reposing under a palm tree. The film is at the State theatre with an exciting interlude called "Pacific Blackout."

Douglas Fairbanks is the star of the Drive In theatre film, "The Corsican Brothers."

"Blondie Goes to College" now at the Lyric theatre is another astonishingly hectic portrait of family life as it is lived by those fabulously frenzied Bumsteads. America's favorite fun family! Based upon Chic Young's cartoon strip characters, and again presenting Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake and Larry Simms as the Bumsteads, "Blondie Goes to College" merits the laughter and applause so richly accorded it by opening-day audiences.

This latest in the laugh-packed Blondie comedies is based upon Dagwood's sudden discovery that he's a moron, and besides he wants to play football! So Blondie nabs Baby Dumpling into a military school and then enrolls with Dagwood in the nearest college. Since their married state would interfere with Dagwood's fullest enjoyment of college life, the Bumsteads attempt to establish a campus flirtation. But Blondie is promptly swept off her feet by the school's athletic hero, and Dagwood blunders his way into a sophomore love affair with a co-ed!

Dagwood's romantic antics, plus his studies, PLUS his athletic career, provide a major share of the many laughable moments in "Blondie Goes to College." Dagwood's efforts to make the track team, the baseball team, the football team, all end disastrously; when he finally lands a place on the varsity crew—thru the good offices of Blondie and her bemused athlete—that ends disastrously, too. Dagwood definitely does not win the big race!

Jinx Falkenburg and Joan Woodbury, those sizzling "Two Latinas From Manhattan" are back again in another film which promises to be "way gayer and merrier than their earlier hit!" Now at the Quilna "Sweetheart of the Fleet" proves to be a sweetheart of a comedy with Joan Davis also of "Two Latinas From Manhattan" and Brenda and Cobina, famous radio comedies, joining those hot-swinging' lovebirds as they sing the blues to the boys in blue! The story is concerned with a press agent's efforts at dreaming up a gigantic stunt to help sell Navy recruiting to the public at a giant Madison Square Garden rally. The press agent, Joan Davis, gets the inspired idea to "unmask" the Blind Date radio singers at the rally as the sweethearts of the fleet. Because nobody is supposed to know the identity of the girls, it is felt that this announcement plan will bring thousands to the Garden on the night of the rally.

The plan hilariously backfires, though, when Joan learns that the Blind Dates are really Brenda and Cobina, whose faces as everyone knows, will stop any clock that was ever made. However, in true press agent fashion, Joan comes thru with another plan that's even better.

She arranges for the Misses Falkenburg and Woodbury, two beautiful models, to impersonate the Blind Date girls. Several hitches develop before the affair actually is run off, but things are finally ironed out in a hectic climax with Brenda and Cobina clinging with two sailors, Jinx and Joan finding romance with two Navy officers, and Joan Davis finally convincing her boss that she, too, has more than her share of charm—as well as brains!

Other members of the cast besides those mentioned above, include William Wright, Robert Stevens, Tim Ryan, George McKay and Walter Sands among others.

Council bowed its head in respect to the late City Solicitor Lester W. Shepherd at an abbreviated session Monday night.

After adopting a resolution of sympathy to the widow, the legislators and other municipal officials went in a body to the Lewis funeral home to view the official's body.

Last rites for Shepherd were to be held Tuesday afternoon. The sympathetic resolution, a copy of which has been sent to Mrs. Shepherd, follows:

"WHEREAS, on the 6th day of June, 1942, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom saw fit to summon into His presence Lester W. Shepherd, City Solicitor of Lima, Ohio, and;

"WHEREAS, in the passing of the said Lester W. Shepherd, the City of Lima has lost the services of an able public servant, he having been overwhelmingly elected to the office of City Solicitor for three consecutive terms, and having fearlessly and courageously represented the municipality as its legal advisor since Jan. 1, 1938; and

"WHEREAS, said official was a native of Lima with an enviable record in the practice of law in addition to his achievements while serving as assistant city solicitor, as president of the Lima school board, and county representative to the State Legislature; and

"WHEREAS, above all, it may be truthfully said that Solicitor Shepherd was every inch a gentleman of whom the community can well be proud;

"NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF LIMA, OHIO: "FIRST

"That the Council of the City of Lima, Ohio with the deepest sorrow take cognizance of the passing from their midst of City Solicitor Lester W. Shepherd, an able lawyer and a conscientious public official—one whose very life bears testimony to the fact that honor is the crowning virtue of American manhood.

"SECOND

"That this Council for and on behalf of the City of Lima extend its heartfelt sympathy to the next of kin of Solicitor Shepherd and particularly to his widow whose loyal companionship with her husband at the home and in the office was constant and unflinching.

"THIRD

"That the Clerk of this Council be and he hereby is authorized and directed to forward a copy of this resolution to Mrs. Lester W. Shepherd, 1122 Bellefontaine Avenue, Lima, Ohio, and also a copy of the same to The Lima News."

Nearly a dozen pieces of business were disposed of during the weekly meeting.

City Engineer Frank Cupp's monthly building report showed that a volume of $47,155 was handled during May, bringing the year's total to $572,205. The report, along with the auditor's and city treasurer's monthly report, was received and filed.

Council was informed that members of the Allen-co Board of Health had unanimously approved the disposal specifications of Ralph W. Secoy, successful bidder for the city's garbage contract. The business will be operated under the name of The Refuse Collection Service, Inc. Operations are expected to begin about July 1.

Council authorized and directed Mayor Frank E. McClain to purchase a new three-wheel motorcycle for the police department. The vehicle will be used to police parking meters.

Legislation was authorized for the vacation of an alley located between Nye and Metcalf streets beginning at Faurot and running north to an east and west alley. The petition requesting the vacation was signed by 100 per cent of the property owners. The vacation was recommended by City Engineer Cupp and Fire Chief Harry Taflinger.

Council referred to the mayor, city solicitor's office and police department a communication asking investigation of an accident in which D. J. Armstrong was injured last January in a fall on a sidewalk in the 700 block S. Pine-st. The mishap was blamed on a defective sidewalk.

Mayor McClain told council it had become necessary to halt the street oiling and tar and chip project because of the inability to obtain tar. He intimated there might also be a shortage of oil in the near future.

ELECTION BOARD REVISES FILES

FINDLAY, June 9 — The Hancock Co Board of Elections has just removed from the files the cards of 155 persons who have died or been committed to state institutions, or of women who have married, between Aug. 1, 1941 and May 1, 1942.

Women who have married must register under their married names. The final register will be July 12 in quality to vote at the primary election Aug. 11.

New voters who will become 21 years of age on or before Nov. 4, 1942, the day following fall election, may register now and cast their ballots at the primary. Persons who have moved to the city and those who have moved from one precinct to another, must transfer.

LIBRARY TO SPONSOR BOOK READING CRUISE

FINDLAY, June 9 — The Findlay public library will sponsor a Book Reading cruise, starting June 15 and continuing for six weeks. Boys and girls from the second to the eighth grades may join.

Boys and girls who may join will start the cruise as shipmates, and will be promoted to ensigns after reading five books including at least one non-fiction. They will continue to be promoted until they reach the rank of admiral.

NEW SUBS PLANNED

WASHINGTON, June 9 — (AP) —A hearing on a $2,807,499,740 supplemental war bill disclosed today that the Navy plans construction of 51 new submarines in the fiscal year beginning July 1, with 76 more scheduled for next year.

Famous Jury Trials Will Reveal Card Sharper Tricks

Billy Mills To Salute George M. Cohan On Fibber McGee Spot; Horace Heidt To Feature New War Song

Most people don't discuss gambling losses, but when Sam Parkes lost his life's savings in a poker game with some political workers, he appealed to the District Attorney. As a result, Herman Waters, alleged head of a group of political card sharps, was brought to trial on a technical charge of larceny by trick.

Details of the ring's operations, preying on people seeking jobs and contracts thru their influence, will be revealed in a dramatization of the case to be heard as the "Famous Jury Trials" offering Tuesday, at 9 p. m., over the Blue network.

Directed by William Roussau, a cast of noted radio actors will be heard.

Billy Mills will salute George M. Cohan on the Fibber McGee and Molly program at 8:30 p. m. over WEAF, when he features an orchestral medley in a duet with "You're A Grand Old Flag," "Stand Up and Fight," and "I'm A Yankee Doodle Dandy." The King's Men will sing the thrilling new patriotic number, "The Bombardier Song." Fibber McGee and Molly and other residents of 70 Westful Vista will be on hand with the laughs.

Latest of the war song hits, "Johnny Doughboy Found a Rose in Ireland," will be a Steve Merrill vocal as a highlight of Horace Heidt's "Treasure Chest" program from Minneapolis over WEAF at 8:30 p. m. Other songs are "Somebody Else Is Taking My Place" by the Trumpeters, "Rose Marie," a piano solo by Frankie Carle, "I Threw a Kiss In the Ocean" by Donna and her son Junes, and "University of Minnesota Rouser Song" by Whistler Fred Lowery and the ensemble. In addition, Heidt will interview various unusual guests.

Something Verboten: When "Hobby Lobby" on last Saturday played host to a talking bird May 30 there were huzzahs from press and public alike, but little did anyone know that Dave Elman was holding his breath for fear the bird would spill some choice ad libs. Spotting a gob in the audience the bird cried: "Shove off, sailor, let's get a couple of—", but whether it was to be drinks or dames no one will ever know. His owner had promptly muzzled him!

Faith It's Wonderful! Dave Elman, emcee of "Hobby Lobby" had such faith in one of his hobbyists—a sling-shot clamp who shoots a cigaret from a girl's mouth—that when it came time for this stunt in rehearsal, Dave's wife volunteered as "the target!"

CRANIUM CRACKERS

1. This silver eagle is worn by a colonel in the American Army. Does the insignia of a colonel differ?

2. The Japs pushed hard in their campaign in Burma trying to finish the job before the monsoon came. Is a monsoon a drought, a dust storm or a strong wind which brings heavy rain?

3. The Nazi government found it necessary to tell its people that Hitler's pet Storm Troopers were serving with the armed forces and that many had been killed. Was this due to a desire to show how brave they are, to prove they haven't got soft, to boost the civilians around or to intimidate the United Nations?

MELODRAMA AND VAUDEVILLE TO HOLD SPOTLIGHT

Additional Society News

Vaudeville and melodrama share the spotlight at Stubbs Gables, starting June 15 when the Anita Tellers present that epic of the Gay Nineties, "Curse You Jack Dalton." Carmen Thompson is the director of the play and Bert Stimmel is in charge of the vaudeville. The audience will also be encouraged to sing the old "Gay Ninety" favorites and to volubly express condemnation of the dastardly villains and admiration for the virtuous heroine and manly hero.

Bertha, the Sewing Machine Girl, epitome of gentle bravery in the teeth of poverty and sorrow, will be portrayed by Lulu Cardosi, while Jack Dalton, played by Ray Sobek, is the barrel-chested wavy-haired hero whose undying love is her refuge and protection. Complicating this sweet story with their sordid machinations are the "henchies," Anna Alvarado, Spanish adventures and concoctor of sinister plots, and Hector Harecourt, number one snake-in-the-grass, played by Mary Porter and Gene Bryan, respectively. Others in the cast include Marguerite Vogelgesang, Betty Jo Feltz and Bert Stimmel.

Virginia Enstley, Mercedes Stapleton, Pauline DeVita, and Rose Huntington are featured in the vaudeville acts, as singing and dancing "Floradora" girls.

The production staff includes George Nadeau, stage director, assisted by Art Hogan; Carmen and Dolores Cardone, proprietors; Wayne Ranga, house manager; Marcella Jenner, tickets, assisted by Edna Hogan; Harlow Shaw, director of singing, and Marguerite Vogelgesang, pianist.

The show will start on Monday, June 15 and run thru Friday, June 19.

PRACTICE SCHEDULED

GILBOA, June 9 — Practice for Children's Day will be held Friday evening at the Methodist church with the program scheduled Sunday, June 11, under the direction of Ethel Kline, Lella Stelman and Bessie Hindall.

MISS JUANITA GERLING, E. Second-st., will entertain members of the business girls garden club Tuesday evening in her home.

Regular meeting of the Phi Sigma Tau sorority was held Monday evening in the home of Miss Mildred Johns, S. Union-st. Misses Joan Fleming and Elaine King won prizes in the contests, and a dainty lunch was served in conclusion.

Miss Betty Johske, S. Elizabeth-st., will be hostess for the next meeting in two weeks.
