All who saw "Casablanca" at the Chio theatre over the weekend hailed it as an outstanding Packed with action and romance, it features the tough but likable Humphrey Bogart, levely Ingrid Bergman and a host of other Hollywood favorites.

Currently flashing on the screen at the Quilna is "China Girl," a powerful drama with equal shares of romance and thrills. In the starring roles are Gene Tierney, newcomer George Montgomery, Lynn Bari and Victor McLaglen. Now showing at the Sigma are two first class pictures, "The Moon and Sixpense" and "Seven Miles From Alcatraz." In the first hit. George Sanders portrays a London stockbrower who becomes tired of his life in England. He leaves his home and his wife and goes to many strange cities. The other hit stars are Bonita Granville and James Craig. One of the laugh hits of 1942,

"George Washington Slept Here," currently is showing at the State. Jack Benny of radio fame and the lovely Ann Sheridan are cast as man and wife in this comedy hit. William Gargan has a leading role in the co-feature, "Destination Unknown."
