Jim Weigen Blasts 674 Bowling Series

16 City Keglers Leaders Hit '600' Counts

lo Patraw Leads Ladies with 540

Young Jimmy Weigen of Sun Prairie grabbed off the top spot of the city honor column of bowling for the second time this season Friday night with a 674 strike blast in the Businessmen's League at the Madison Alleys as he chained together games of 188, 221 and 265.

The Schwoegler brothers,
Mel and world champion Connie, occupied the No. 2 and 3 spots of the honor roll with 650 and 638 triples, respec-tively, in the Classic League rolling on the Schwoegler lanes. Mel had games of 238, 213 and 199; Connie hit 203, 199 and 236.

Sixteen keglers hit honor punts, Herman Dahlby being fourth high on 627 and Sam De
