

Janet Blair Stars In New Musical Comedy At Lyric

"The Yanks Are Coming" Is Co-featured, With Henry King And His Band; "Air Force" Comes To State

Fresh from her "My Sister Eileen" comedy triumph, Janet Blair returns to the Lyric screen with Don Ameche and Jack Oakie in "Something to Shout About," a swell musical. What happens to Miss Blair when she goes to the big city to sell songs makes the hit interesting indeed. "The Yanks Are Coming," featuring Henry King and his band, also shows.

Showing at the State Tuesday and Wednesday will be "Air Force," a picture which records the log of the "Mary Ann," a Boeing Flying Fortress, from the time it leaves Mather Field, San Francisco, Dec. 6, 1941, for Honolulu until the Japs attack the U. S. islands. John Garfield, Gig Young and Harry Carey are starred. "How About It?" also is showing.

At the Quilna is "City Without Men," a story about a woman who'd wait and fight for years for one kiss and a caress from her husband who is in prison. This hair-raising drama features Linda Darnell and newcomer Michael Duane. The black market is bared in "No Place for a Lady," the second attraction which stars Margaret Lindsay and William Garzan.

The Ohio is presenting a technicolor comedy, "Happy Go Lucky," which finds Mary Martin hunting for a millionaire husband on a resort island in the Caribbean. Dick Powell, Rudy Vallee, Eddie Bracken and Betty Hutton are just a few of the stars in this laugh riot. It shows thru Thursday.

"Big Street," an unusual drama starring Henry Fonda and Lucille Ball, will commence an engagement at the Drive-in theatre on Wednesday. The Tuesday attraction is "The Navy Comes Thru," with Pat O'Brien and George Murphy.

On Wednesday the Sigma will present two new productions, "Stranger in Town," and "Bandit Ranger," an action-packed western. Currently at the Sigma are "I Walked With a Zombie," dealing with voodooism, and "Good Morning, Judge," with Dennis O'Keefe.

QUILNA Linda Darnell, following in the footsteps of Claudette Colbert, Clark Gable, James Stewart and other stars who left their "home" studios to make a picture for another studio, is said by Hollywood to achieve as distinctive a success as her "loan-out" predecessors. In "City Without Men," at the Quilna theatre, Miss Darnell heads a cast of top-flight merit in a drama of explosive force.

Story of women who wait for their men, the new film was directed by Sidney Salkow from the screen play by W. L. Rivers. In the cast supporting the beautiful Miss Darnell are Edear Buchanan, Michael Duane, Sara Allgood, Glenda Farrell, Leslie Brooks and Doris Dudley.

"City Without Men" is set in a prison town, to which come the wives and sweethearts of innocent men and guilty murderers, thieves, embezzlers. They have come to wait, some in quiet hope of a pardon or a miracle, some in defiant expectation of "springing" their men, one—a mother—in patient resignation at the tragic knowledge that her son will soon be "out," electrocuted for murder. These women are spurned by the "better" hotels in the town, assemble in the rooming house maintained by a woman whose husband has been sentenced to life imprisonment.

Into this atmosphere of determination of men and lorpings, comes Miss Darnell, a school teacher whose fiancée has been falsely accused and jailed. She works in a laundry in order to pay fees to a shyster lawyer, hoping that he can prove the boy's innocence. "City Without Men" even as its cameras are focused primarily upon the women, goes inside the prison walls to present phases of penitentiary life in particular, one phase of penitentiary life never before explored by the cameras—the prison in wartime!

Thruout the country, according to Hollywood, men now in prison have petitioned authorities for permission to fight Hitler. Lifers ask to be put into suicide battalions; other convicts ask permission to fight, with the understanding they will return to finish their jail terms after victory has been won!

Eddie Norris, currently playing a prominent role in "No Place for a Lady" at the Quilna theatre, is a busy man when he's not appearing in films. Norris, who holds a civilian pilot's license, doubts as an instructor off the screen.

SIGMA Commencing Wednesday at the Sigma will be "A Stranger in Town," which deals with a judge who takes time out to battle crooks and untangle romance. Leading roles are taken by Frank Morgan, Richard Carlson, Joan Rogers and Porter Hall. Morgan is said to be at his best in this production.

Charged with a murder he did not commit, a young Texan clears his name and brings to justice the real killers who had framed him in "Bandit Ranger," an outdoor drama of the Early West, starring Tim Holt, also scheduled to open Wednesday.

The story is packed to the brim with gripping suspense, breath-taking chases, hilarious comedy and tuneful cowboy music. It is played against picturesque outdoor settings. Joan Barclay plays the feminine lead, and Cliff Edwards (Ukelele Ike) is featured in a comedy singing role.

OHIO Mary Martin says that before she does her next picture, she's going to take out some accident insurance. Mary took a terrific amount of punishment in the Technicolor musical comedy, "Happy Go Lucky," now at the Ohio theatre, in which she shares starring honors with Dick Powell, Betty Hutton, Eddie Bracken and Rudy Vallee.

QUILNA PAJAMA QUEEN

Jan Arthur, recently awarded the title of "Official Pajama Hostess of the Year," because of the Ronald Colman pajamas she wore in "The Talk Of The Town," continues her pajama-clad ways in "The More The Merrier," which comes to the Quilna Friday evening.

NEW BUNGALOWS TO BE ADDED TO CITY SHORTLY

Great lines of gaily painted animal bungalows, several fitted with plate glass windows, some boasting heating plants, others having private baths and all wired with electric lights are soon to be added to the residence district of this city. The habitations are divided into two and three rooms each, every one has a special housekeeper and all are on wheels. They will not be "For Rent" for the landlords filled them immediately after this year's spring house cleaning. The "bungalows" form the traveling homes of the menagerie animals with the Cole Brothers Circus, which is to exhibit here Thursday afternoon and evening at the Bellefontaine-av showgrounds.
