at 8 on Great A rtists Show Grace Moore, star of the Metropolitan Opera, the movies, and the concert stage, will make her third appearance of the season on the Great Artists program, to be heard at 8 tonight over WIBA.

Miss Moore has chosen three songs for the program, each of which is known to her listeners as a "Grace Moore" number. Her first will be "I Love You So" from Lehar's "Merry Widow," the musical show now enjoying a revival on the New York stage. She will be accompanied by chorus, which will join her again in Lecuona's "Siboney." Miss Moore's final selection will be Tchaikowsky's "None but the Lonely Heart."

The orchestra will play "In the Village" from "Caucasian Sketches," by Ippoltoff-Ivanoff, and "La Ronde Des Lutins" by Bazzini. Other features tonight: 0 0 0

% Postmaster New York City, N. Y.

Received your letter several days ago, and will drop you a few lines. Am glad to hear that things are going well on the home front. Am listening to a broadcast of a baseball game being played in London. It seems to be a very good ball game and several major league ball players are participating on both teams. The Air Force is leading the Gorund Force at the present moment, 1 to 0. Hugh Gustafson, formerly of the good old Madion Blues, is playing a swell game at first base for the Air Force. Would it be possible for me to have the State Journal mailed to For a long time now I've read me starting with the 1st of Sep-your column and have been want- tember? ### be a different person. I have Fortmann to Join Square and could have had ten Chicago Bears

PITTSBURGH -(U.R)- Danny Fortmann, recognized as one of the best guards in professional football, said today that he would give up his post as assistant to Clark Shaughnessy of the Univer-sity of Pittsburgh and rejoin the Chicago Bears this year. Fortmann, a 210 pound six-footer, retired from the pro ranks last summer. He plans to play for the Bears on Sundays and left today to join the club in training. Fortmann said he would help coach at Pitt if he finds that his schedule will permit it. He also hopes to work out with the Panthers during the week to keep himself in shape for Sunday play.

Armstrong, Zivic Face Stiff Tests

NEW YORK-(U.P.)-Two former welterweight champions, Henry lose him. Armstrong and Fritzie Zivic, face severe tests in their comeback the nation when I made a round non title fight at Shibe Italian boot and crossed to Mes-Park in Philadelphia tonight. The contest will be the 33rd of Zivic's comeback campaigns.
