SUNDAY MUSIC: A veritable festival of music extending emy plane, and forced the other to through the University of Wisconsin's school year is being flee. planned by the university school of music under the leadership of its director, Prof. Carl Bricken.

Beginning Oct. 10, the school will present a recital or concert virtually every Sunday, with the exception of school-recess periods. The programs, now in formation, will range from the plane crashed when taking off. piano sonatas through all forms of chamber music to orchestral and choral works. The Pro Arte quartet will play an im- and trapped the upper-turret gunportant part in the series.

The concerts will be open to the public, and each will begin 8 p. m. in Music hall.

The Sunday afternoon music hours will continue in the Wisconsin Union theater under sponsorship of the Union's music Staff Sgt. James J. Cavallo, Milcommittee. These, booked at 4:15 p. m. bi-weekly, will begin

The music school's tentative schedule calls for programs on the last four Sundays in October, all Sundays in November, the first two in December, on Jan. 2, 9, and 30, the last three Sundays in February all Sundays in March, on Apr. 2, 9, and 30, and on May 7. Tentative dates for Sunday music hours are Oct. 31, Nov. 14 and 28, Dec. 12, Jan. 2 and 30, Feb. 13 and 27, and Mar. 12 and 26.

CORRECTION: New member of the Pro Arte quartet is Albert Rahier-not Ranier, as reported here through a typographical error. 90th universary.

Rervous Feelings
If at such times your suffer from cramps, backache, distress of "irregularities" periods of the blues—due to functional monthly disturbances—
Start at once—try Lydia E. Pinkham's Veretable Compound to relieve such symptoms, It's /amous not only to help relieve monthly pain but also accompanying thred, nervous feelings of this nature. This is because of its southing effect on one of woman's most important organs.

Taken regularly—Pinkham's Compound helps build up resistance stains: such symptoms. Follow label directions! LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE
