

Fantastic Frank Morgan Claims He Is Director

"Honest" Frank Morgan has made many claims to fame, but when he tries to tell those skeptics, Frank Tours and John Conte, that he directed "Thousands Cheer," he finds himself backed up against a wall of disbelief in another all-out fun fest on "Coffee Time" Thursday (WEAF, 7 p. m., EST).

Henry Aldrich battles with meagre success for equal rights for men when he encounters one Julia, a young lady of spirit, in "The Aldrich Family" over WEAF on Thursday, at 7:30 p. m., EST.

Lucille Ball, gorgeous redheaded star of "DuBarry Was A Lady," will be the recipient of Lou Costello's attentions on the Abbott and Costello program Thursday, 9 p. m., EST, over WEAF when the comedian brings to the air their third broadcast of the season.

Costello's objective in the Lucille Ball campaign is to borrow her precious nylon stockings so that he and Lana Turner can stop stepping. His project will be considerably slowed down by "Bugs Bunny," "Little Matilda," and "Mr. and Mrs. Ken Niles." Fredie Rich's orchestra will be heard with Connie Haines doing the vocals.

Wally Brown, devotee of double-talk dialogue, will pin on the guest badge for the third time when he joins "The Dinah Shore."

(Special To The Lima News)
ST. MARYS, Nov. 18 — An old landmark in St. Marys has disappeared with the razing of the J. P. Smith Carriage works, W. North-st.
J. P. Smith, veteran of the Civil War, made carriages in the shop until about 1915 when "Old Dobbin" was replaced with the automobile. His carriages were not just ordinary vehicles but were distinctive, ornamented with hand carving or with other outstanding work.

Laurel And Hardy Doing Bit To Lift Morale In New Show

Comedy and drama will be offered at the Quilna starting with the preview Friday night. Laurel and Hardy are really doing their bit to lift the morale with their new show "Dancing Masters." The drama hit coming on the same billing is "In Old Chicago" with Alice Faye and Tyrone Power as co-stars. The preview also sees the closing of "The Unknown Guest" and "Melody Parade."

"The Iron Major" opens at the Ohio theatre Friday. "Princess O'Rourke" shows for the last time Thursday.
"Fired Wife" and "Trail of Terror" are now offered on the twin billing at the Sigma.
State theatre fans find mystery and music with "Sherlock Holmes Faces Death" and "Larceny with Music" now playing.
Co-billed at the Lyric theatre are "Bandit Rangers" and "Boys of the City."

OHIO
Giving the popular Pat O'Brien one of his most colorful roles, "The Iron Major," which opens Friday at the Ohio, stars the Irish favorite in a dramatic screen presentation of the career of the late Major Frank Cavanaugh, World War I hero and one of the greatest coaches in football history.

Ruth Warrick, Robert Ryan and Leon Ames are featured in the authentic film, which re-creates the high spots of "Cav" fame—his glorious triumphs when coaching at Holy Cross, Dartmouth and Fordham, his romance and his exploits on the battlefields of France. Thursday is the last showing of "Princess O'Rourke."

QUILNA
Petite starlet Trudy Marshall, whose lovely likeness has been featured in hundreds of national advertising campaigns, plays the romantic lead in the hilarious new hit, "The Dancing Masters," starring the fun-famous comedy team of Laurel and Hardy.
Others in the cast are Robert Bailey, Matt Briggs, Margaret Dumont and Allen Lane.
