They're at it again and things are bound to sizzle at the State theatre Thursday when Wallace Beery and Marjorie Main start stealing scenes in "Rationing" which will open along with "Her Primitive Man" another laugh-getter. This is the fifth film for the Beery-Main team and if box-office results are considered we should be seeing a lot more of them. Closing at the film house Wednesday night are "Passage to Marseille" and "Higher and! Higher."

Robert Walker does an excellent job as the very bewildered service man in "See Here, Private Hargrove" at the Ohio.

Ohio comes into its own with the premiere showing of "Home in Indiana" at the Quilna Thursday night. Shots from Fremont and Marion are in evidence. Closing just prior to the late Thursday billing are "Trocadero" and "Rosie the Riveter."

Comedy and drama are featured on the Sigma screen where "Henry Aldrich, Cupid" and "Back Door to Heaven" are now playing. Opening Thursday at the Lyric will be "Devil Riders" and "Jungle Book." Playing for the last times Wednesday night are "Guadalcanal Dairy and "What a Woman."

"The Heat's On" at the Lima Drive-In theatre gives added enjoyment to the June nights.

It marked the first time the Pope had left the Vatican since the Germans occupied the capital last September.

The service was held in the church where a 10-day ceremony of public prayers for the deliver. ance of Rome had been concluded the evening of June 4 when troops of the Fifth Army entered the
