

"Canterville Ghost" Opens At Ohio Theatre Tuesday

With a starring trio of Charles Laughton, little Margaret O'Brien and Robert Young, and a story adapted from Oscar Wilde's celebrated tale, "The Canterville Ghost," opens Tuesday at the Ohio theatre.

It is a whimsical picture, full of delightful humor and warm dramatic situation which all the family can enjoy. Imagine a ghost, which, because of cowardice in a duel during his life, has been forced to roam the broad halls of his English castle for more than 300 years. Sounds crazy, but just wait until you see it.

This world can easily be termed a world of different ideas but the Sigmatheatre seems to have one of them that can't be beat. At 11:30 p. m. tonight, the Sigma theatre will open its doors on a gala election movie. During the showing time, interruptions will be made to bring to the audience the latest election returns.

Sigma's feature will be "Youth Runs Wild," a stirring drama of lives of the younger generation.

"It's four-leaf entertainment from start to finish!" That's how Hollywood preview audiences are acclaiming "Irish Eyes Are Smiling" the new technicolor hit playing at the Quilna theatre. The film stars Monty Woolley, June Haver and Dick Haymes.

Bing Crosby has been asked at different times why he does not sing more classical songs rather than so many popular ones. His comeback has usually been the fact that he didn't know whether or not the people would like it. There is proof enough in the fact that the theatre audiences are simply raving about his latest picture, "Going My Way," in which he sings many such songs.

Leo Gorcey will not look like a million dollars but just wait until you see him in "Million Dollar Kid." Then you will understand why Gorcey has been given this name in the movie now showing at the Lyric theatre.
