SAYS:
Fitzsimmons quits as manager of the Phils. I don't blame him at all folks.

The Boston Red Sox are on the move folks. If not stopped soon might go all the way lots think.

Some smart guy at Loraine wrote in and gave me the bird-pleats. I had in my column that Bierman of Minnesota in my mind was one of the six greatest coaches of all times. I also stated he might have quite a barn burner this fall.

But the guy with the name Phil on the letter must be none other than the great Notre Dame man he stated don't you know Minnesota or Bierman never defeated Notre Dame. And that look in Bierman with service team with 409 out for football.

Popping off Phil stated that Bierman couldn't carry Coach Leahy's coat around the campus when it came to coaching.

He just cites Notre Dame against Minnesota. I don't know how many times Bierman has played Notre Dame, but just the same his old saying in the records and Bierman's coaching record stands out as one of the best six coaches of all times in stretch of years.

Games won and lost is what counts. Alibis are not in the list. Alibis are all right but they don't count on the scoreboard or in the record book. So Phil look up Bierman's record in the toughest league in the game, the Big Ten.

If it looks weak tell me if it looks strong keep it to yourself.

Sure Leahy is great coach. Who said he wasn't. But he ain't got no Bierman record.

Was Walter "Butch" Krueger and Ed Owens ever talking the other day. When you see them ask them what made them talk so fast and go for the fall timber.

Bill Byrnes was supposed to notify me the other day about something. I got a letter. I would have been glad to have went.

Louise Marston, society editor of the State Journal, is talking at banquets now. All Women's clubs get in touch with her. I am glad she is taking a speaker's tour now. I can rest up.

Ira Gill of the WMCA has a sunny lamp over there. He must be saving the bulb he only lets you stay in there a minute. You couldn't tan a canary bird under that in a minute.

I haven't seen Father Finnegan or Father Doherty for quite a while. They might be on a vacation.

Just when I was going to lay some fish on their back porch I can't find them.

I sent Cpl. Frank Raffel a letter in March overseas but the letter came back and said he had returned to the United States. Quite a few people seem in Madison but I haven't seen him.

I went in to see Ed Kelly the other day but he was out fishing or golfing. But Mrs. Kelly got the old scrambled eggs for me in nice shape and how.

I am going to try and get up and see Mr. and Mrs. Bob Leske at Winegar, Wisconsin. They have got a beautiful resort they tell me it is away up there too. Some of the boys tell me if you want fish that is the place to catch them. It is the Bay View Lodge. Mr. and Mrs. Leske are Madison folks.

Brother Gallagher sent me a post card from Louisville. I am going to save that baby.

Art Desormeaux is taking it easy now he said he is sitting pretty strawberries and cream every morning he says and spring chickens for supper.

A lot of people write in here and they holler about

Shipment of War Supplies Big Job

Over 3,000,000 major ordnance items and 700,000 tons of ammunition will be shipped from Europe to the Pacific, it was announced today by the Army Ordnance department.
The program for receiving, inspecting, repairing and packaging this vast quantity of material is proceeding under the direction of Maj. Gen. Henry B. Saylor, chief ordnance officer, European Theater of Operations.
According to Col. John Szlezak, chief of the Chicago Ordnance district, the list of equipment includes 35,000 combat vehicles; 325,000 general and special purpose vehicles; 11,000 artillery pieces; 2,800,000 small arms, automatic weapons, and mortars; and 400,000 items of aircraft fire control equipment.
It is estimated that the program will take approximately a year to complete and will require the work of 150,000 officers, enlisted men, civilians, and prisoners of war to process this ordnance material. Twenty repair shops and eight ordnance depots are being used to handle this redeployment program.

Baraboo Marine Gave Life Aiding Wounded Comrade

BARABOO—Marine Pfc. Harlan L. Page, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Page, Baraboo, who was killed at Iwo Jima, Mar. 9, died while rendering assistance to a wounded comrade, according to word received by his parents.
A member of the 28th regiment which captured Mt. Suribachi, Pfc. Page was with the forces that engaged the enemy on the north end of the island in the last stages of the battle.
A letter from his personnel officer states, "Moving forward in the attack, Harlan was doing a most commendable job of leading his squad. During earlier fighting he was recognized for his leadership and ability to act correctly under fire. As the attack continued, he time and again led his men into the enemy positions. He had stopped to administer first aid to a wounded comrade when he was hit in the chest by gun snort. Thus in the act of valor and humanity, he passed away suffering no pain whatsoever. You may be assured that Harlan gave his life as a true marine, gloriously, fearlessly, and proudly."

Outdoor Dances Resumed

The USO will resume the Saturday night outdoor dances on the evening site, entrance of the capitol tonight.

1,200 Strike, Picket at Waukesha Motor Co.

WAUKESHA—(U.P.)—About 1,200 employes Thursday went on strike and picketed the main gates of the Waukesha Motor Co. in protest against a War Labor Board (WLB) order concerning timing and re-termining of piece work jobs. Workers were allied with Local 1377 of the AFL machinists union.
A strike vote taken Monday revealed the employes' intention of striking unless the WLB acted on the company's petition for a review of a previous WLB order to submit the dispute to arbitration. There had been much dissatisfaction since new machines were installed and piece work rates were adjusted several months ago.

Associated Press to Ask for Rehearing

NEW YORK—(U.P.)—The Associated Press will petition the Supreme Court for a rehearing of its recent affirmation of a special court's anti-trust law decision against the news agency, and in event the petition is denied will amend its by-laws to conform with the ruling, the AP's board of directors has announced.
The board said it did not feel the AP was in the appropriate agency to appeal to congress for relief from the court decision, but said its decision should not deter members from exercising their right of petition.

They got a chance to make a little money now let them make money. They've been in the war didn't make enough buy bean soup. They ain't the only ones getting out of bounds once in a while.
There's thousands, thousands, and thousands of cars who drive out to the race tracks in Chicago, Detroit, and other places why can't other people do the same? The race tracks are fifteen or twenty miles away from the Chicago loop. They ain't any better than anybody else.

Dane Relief Costs Continue to Decline

With the costs of public assistance in Dane county continuing to decline, records issued today by the state department of public welfare for the month of May show that 289 cases received $9,438 or general relief last month while the break-down of social security aids shows:

Nazis Planned Launching of 'Sub' Rockets

PARIS—(U.P.)—The Nazis were perfecting a method of launching V-2 rockets from submarines for attacks on American seaboard cities in the closing days of the war, it was learned today.
A dispatch from United Press Correspondent Robert Musel in Bremen indicated that the Germans had given data on their V-weapon experiments to the Japanese. Whether the submarine technique was included in the material sent to Japan was not known.
"However," an American investigator said, "the Germans have an extremely low opinion of the Japanese ever getting V-weapons into the tactical or strategic stage."
The experiments on submarine launching of rockets were uncovered by the 80th division in the Austrian Alps after chance remarks by a small boy and an old man led to the discovery of an elaborate laboratory.
Counter-intelligence officers captured Dr. Heinrich Determann, who said he had developed a method of "firing rockets from underwater without surfacing at any distance up to the range of V-2."
Determann and 14 assistants were captured in a disguised attempt to infiltrate the village of Gossl. They said they had destroyed their patents and formulas and sunk their experimental machinery and equipment in the deep lake.
The dispatch from Musel said that in addition to passing on their V-weapon data, the Germans gave the Japanese many ideas on the use of gas. However, the Germans themselves discarded gas as impractical, and they did not believe the Japanese would do it.
