

Hilarious 'Pillow To Post,' Big Laugh Hit, At State

Trying to aid her father with his business, Jean Howard persuades him to let her go out on the road as one of his salesmen. Of course, everyone knows the housing situation these days but Jean had to find out the hard way.

Jean Howard, played by Ida Lupino, arrives in a jam-packed Army town only to find no vacancies. The only way to get a room for the night is to register with a soldier as a husband and wife. "Pillow To Post" which will open Thursday at the State theatre, will have you literally rolling in the aisles with laughter from the antics of the truly hilarious Lupino.

Triumph after triumph has been recorded for Bette Davis and here is another to add to that already long list. "The Corn Is Green," now showing at the Ohio theatre is perhaps one of the most outstanding roles played by Miss Davis in her whole career. She has become to her film admirers the heroine of drama and once again she comes thru.

After many years of active service with the Air Corps, Clark Gable has returned to the screen. He hasn't as yet made any new pictures but there is one of his first pictures in town now. The film is "Call of the Wild," the story of the Klondike gold rush and all those things sacrificed by men for gold.

Whether or not it is actually impossible to sell your soul is something this reviewer cannot tell you but you can see for yourself in the film "The Picture of Dorian Gray" with Hurd Hatfield in the title role now showing at the Sigma theatre. A man wishes that he may never grow old and in doing so says he gives his soul to a devil. Here's one you'll not wish to miss.

If you're in the mood for some comedy, hill-billy style, then the Lyric theatre is the place for you. Here they have "I'm From Arkansas"—a hill-billy musical comedy that is really on the beam. Sharing in the billing is "Fuzzy Settles Down" another film you'll enjoy.

Secret Weapons' Story To Be Aired Wednesday

Hermann Goering stood at the English Channel, fuming because the British Royal Air Force seemed to anticipate every move of the Luftwaffe, and to be there in sufficient numbers to break up every attack. A Japanese battleship and her escort of cruisers were sent to the bottom by American ships they never saw, off Guadalcanal. Those were two dramatic applications of one of the most secret weapons of World War II, radar, the story of which will be told on "The Human Adventure," in its broadcast over Station WOR, Wednesday at 10 p. m.

Cantor's Cozy Cabana turns all out for the military on "Wednesday With You," heard over WEAF, 9 p. m. Harry von Zell, Freddie Martel, Nora Martin and Leonard Sues do the honors when a high ranking officer from the European Theatre checks in at the Cabana for a guest starring stint in honor of Army Air Corps Day. David Harding, sworn foe of saboteurs and spies, proves that even the smallest clue may have great significance in another timely episode of "Counterplay" entitled "The Case of the Tablecloth Doodler," to be heard Wednesday at 10 p. m. over WJZ.

DENTIST IS SUFFOCATED YOUNGSTOWN, Aug. 1—(AP)—Dr. Joseph V. Ledwen, 42, suffocated yesterday when a fire trapped him in his three-room dentist's office in a downtown business building.
