Comical Honeymoon Triangle Enlivens Pat O'Brien Picture

Laughs compete with thrills in the treatment of the murder mystery drama, "Having a Wonderful Crime," starring Pat O'Brien, George Murphy, and Carole Landis, opening Wednesday at the Sigma O'Brien has the role of Malone, attorney and amateur sleath who Is always in trouble with the police because of prankish Helene Justus (Miss Landis) and her bridegroom (Murphy). As the story opens, Helene, about to start on a honeymoon, has just pulled another stunt which makes the town too hot to hold Malone. He insists upon accompanying the newlyweds. However, it's a case of jumping from the fryin-pan into the fire, for the troubles they had left behind catch up with them, and the honeymoon becomes a nightmare. "Valley of Decision" with Green Garson and Gregory Peck is superb. Perhaps no other adjective can describe this piece of film The picture is a living thing that will keep you hanging on every word Now showing at the Ohio theatre, the picture will give you everything you've ever wanted in a production. A change of billing has been taking place at the Quilna theatre.

As the film "Wilson" moved out Monday, the pictures "The Sullivans" and "Home In Indiana" replace it. Judy Garland and Robert Walker present an admirable performance in "The Clock," currently playing at the State theatre. The movie tells of a soldier on a two-day pass, how he falls in love with a girl and marries her. "The Bridge of San Luis Rey," Thornton Wilder's novel, can be seen at the Lyric theatre. Pictured in all its glory, the film tells how one man tries to decide by probing life histories the rea-son why five people plunged to their death on the aged bridge
