

Errant Bridegroom Deserts His Spouse

This week the thoughts of Limaites have been turned toward the atomic bomb. Well, one without destructive potentialities arrived in this city for the week-end when the many movie hits playing at various local houses were seen on the marquee.

A bombshell landed at the Ohio theatre Friday in the shape of "Thrill Of A Romance," starring Van Johnson and Esther Williams. The film tells the story of a bridegroom who left his bride on the night of their marriage and when he returned found she had fallen in love with another man. The picture is filmed in technicolor and proves a treat for the eyes.

"Captain Eddie" was ushered into the Quilna theatre with a flourish recently. The film is about the man who defied death to prove the value of different things. When he was in danger only his wife knew he would be back. Remember Eddie Rickenbacker, World War I Air Ace? Of course you do—hardly anyone could forget him.

A picture which tells of the courage of both humans and animals is currently showing at the Sigma theatre. "Son of Lassie" with Donald Crisp, Peter Lawford, June Lockhart and Nigel Bruce is the sequel you asked for. Laddie, a foolish little pup who grows up to follow his daring young master into many dangers and passes the true test of courage when courage means life itself, is the basis of the picture.

The sport of kings is shown at the State theatre—or rather will be shown Sunday—in "Sally O'Rourke" and stars Alan Ladd and Gail Russell. The owner of a race horse has little fun as you will note from the film.

Wild Bill Elliott comes to the rescue at the midnight show Saturday at the Lyric theatre. The films which will be on the bill are "Calling Wild Bill Elliott" and "Dr. Renault's Secret."

Army Drama To Be Broadcast; Detroit Symphony Plays Bach

"Walk With Us," the second half of a two-part story of how the Army prepared veterans who have lost limbs for their return to civilian life, will be broadcast on "Assignment Home," the Army Service Forces drama series, at 10:15 p. m. Saturday over Station WABC. The Aug. 4 broadcast dramatized the Army's preparation of the soldier for his return home, and this portion of the story tells of reunion with his family. Arthur Laurents is author of this story, presented in an encore performance.

With Dirk Van Emmerik as oboe soloist, Valtor Poole leads the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in a program of classic by the 18th century masters Bach, Handel, Haydn, and Mozart, topped off by a popular Strauss waltz, for the broadcast of Saturday at 8:30 p. m. over WOR. Van Emmerik will be heard in the Handel "Concerto for Oboe and Orchestra," with the other featured work of the concert being Haydn's Symphony No. 88 in G major, one of the noted "Parisi" symphonies.

Two English brides, who recently married American soldiers based in Great Britain, will have their first opportunity to speak to their in-laws in the two-way broadcast originating from the BBC and New York, "Here Comes the Bride," Saturday at 4:15 p. m. over WOR.

Your GI Rights

Questions and Answers On Servicemen's Problems

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
WASHINGTON, Aug. 11—Here are some general questions from GIs and their relatives on the rights of veterans:

Q. Last year my husband died. This left me all alone with my son in the Army. My health was bad and there was practically no money left from my husband's estate so I requested that my son be discharged to help me. He was. Since then my health has improved and I am able to work and want my son to start college. I wonder now if the circumstances of his discharge will disqualify him from getting the education benefits provided in the GI Bill of Rights?

A. If he meets the other qualifications, the fact that he was discharged to help you makes no difference. He will be eligible for all GI rights.

Q. What is the six months' death gratuity?

A. It is a lump-sum payment equal to six months' pay (but not allowances) at the rate received by the person at the date of death.

Draft Calls To Continue

COLUMBUS, Aug. 11—(AP)—Answering telephone calls that followed reports that the Japanese radio announced the Japs ready to accept unconditional surrender, Col. Chester W. Goble, state Selective Service director, announced today:

"Inductions for military service will continue on schedule until we have instructions otherwise from national Selective Service headquarters."

WANT FORMER JOBS

WARREN Aug. 11—(AP)—Over 36 per cent of some 4,000 Warren and Trumbull-co World War II veterans want to return to their former jobs after the war, a chamber of commerce survey revealed. About 15 per cent of the servicemen polled thought they merited better jobs because of skills learned in the armed forces, the chamber said.
