

Entertaining Films On Show Book This Week

'The Voice' Headlines Ohio's Film

With fall days becoming more and more beautiful, it's hard for any active person to remain indoors for any length of time unless it is under certain circumstances. Such circumstances have arisen at the local show houses and demand immediate attention.

At the Ohio theatre, for example, "Anchors Aweigh" with Gene Kelly, Frank Sinatra and Kathryn Grayson, has been proving to audiences that fall days can add just as much to the enjoyment of things as does a nice brisk walk. You'll not want to miss this technicolor treat.

The Quilna theatre is currently showing the latest tactics in enemy espionage under the title of "The House On 92nd Street" Stars of this production are William Eythe, Signe Hasso and Lloyd Nolan. All do their roles to perfection and make it a film worth seeing.

"First Yank In Tokyo" with Tom Neal has been wowing audiences ever since its opening at the Sigma theatre Saturday. The movie tells of the Yank who, in order to save the life of a countryman very valuable because of his knowledge of the atomic bomb, loses his life. It's the most heroic story of the year. Sharing the billing is "Senorita From The West."

Eddie Bracken goes all out for Bing Crosby in "Out Of This World" currently playing at the State theatre. To tell the truth, he even makes use of Crosby's voice... and Sinatra's bow tie. It's even funnier than one might suspect when Bracken is swamped by an army of bobby soxers but with all his popularity is paid only $75 per week.

More and more horror moves are moving into the limelight of affairs. Whether it be because folks are becoming morbid or just like a good scare once in a while is beyond this reviewer's comprehension, but anyway, you look at it, folks are going in for those "scarey" pictures. One for example is currently showing at the Lyric theatre under the title "House of Frankenstein." Coming Monday are the films "Winged Victory and "Chicago Kid."

Those fighting Leathernecks who take literally the phrase "lead on MacDuff" can be seen currently at the Allen theatre in "The Marines Are Here." Starring Gordon Oliver and June Travis, the film promises to be a treat for all the family.

"VAMPIRE'S DEATH KNELL"—Charles Gordon as Roy Hendrick and John Abbott as Webb Fallon, in a dramatic scene from "The Vampire's Ghost," the super horror film guaranteed to bring chills and thrills to all horror film fans, opening Wednesday at the Lyric theatre.

"IMPULSIVE"—Eddie Bracken startles Diana Lynn with an impulsive kiss in the rollicking hit, "Out Of This World," co-starring Veronica Lake, and making its second appearance in Lima at the State theatre.

ADVISORY GROUP NAMED COLUMBUS, Oct. 27—(AP)—Five members of the advisory committee to the Ohio Water Resources Board were reappointed today to five-year terms under a new law. The five, named by Gov. Frank J. Lausche are: Evans P. Green of Cincinnati, Perry L. Donnelly of Columbus, Thomas J. Schoonmaker of Toledo, and Kenneth M. Lloyd of Youngstown.

ALLEN—"The Marines Are Here" with Gordon Oliver and June Travis; also "Lawless Frontier" with John Wayne.

QUILNA—"Never was menace more deadly!" THE HOUSE ON 92ND STREET with William Eythe, Signe Hasso and Lloyd Nolan; also "Swingin' On A Rainbow" with Tom Neal, Barbara Hale and Marc Cramer; also "Senorita From The West" with Allen Jones.

STATE—"Out Of This World" and "On Stage Everybody" with Jack Oakie, Peggy Ryan and Johnny Coy.

LYRIC—"House of Frankenstein" with Boris Karloff; also "Lawless Frontier."

ALLEN—"The Marines Are Here" with Gordon Oliver and June Travis; also "Lawless Frontier" with John Wayne.

DRIVE-IN—"My Favorite Blonde" with Bob Hope.

COMING UP OHIO—"Week-end At The Waldorf" coming Friday.

QUILNA—"And Then There Were None" and "Come Out Fighting" due Friday.

SIGMA—"True Grit" and "Man Alive" start Wednesday.

STATE—"George White's Scorchers" and "Lady In Green" open Thursday.

LYRIC—"Chicago Kid" and "Winged Victory" begin Monday.

ALLEN—"Revenge Of The Zombies" and "Wild Horse Rustlers" due Wednesday.

DRIVE-IN—"Slimmy Steps Out" commences Wednesday.

Nitelife Footnotes

RAINBOW ROOM—Colorful soft light, sweet music, atmosphere embellished by a well stocked bar.

COURT CAFE—Proprietor Dick is serving an appetizing array of plate tickling stimulants.

ALPINE VILLAGE—Where the customers trip to music by Kroske six nights per week.

BOXY BAR—Here's the focal point for the let's-be-gay element Tom and Evens Pseokos in charge.

MAYFAIR LOBBY—Harry Flores plays the imitable host at this downtown dine, dance and luxury spot.

IMPERIAL CAFE—Accent on service is featured at this nifty spot patronized by general Harry Minton.

A & A CAFE—Lima's pioneer spa where the beer is chilled to that just-right drinking temperature.

ALMA NITE CLUB—Billed as Lima's largest nite club, this oasis features dancing in-the-hole-in-the-stocking stomping style.

WINE BAR—Beer and wines for home or premises consumption are featured here.

WALDO BATHING—It's just a step down and in the Pubic's tavern-down under an alluring invitation to teapochoreansists.

STONE'S GRILL—Where the elongated mahogany is well peopled and the beer comes in skyscraper portions.

BLINKING OWL CLUB—Out on the N. West-st-rd where Reno is Mr. Big and there is plenty of elbow and foot room for dancing.

NEWYORKER RESTAURANT—It's still Chicken-in-the-basket here.

ANDY'S CAFE—Business men's meals and wines and beer for carry-out is the trend here.

LOUIE'S NITE CLUB—Patrons flock to this N. Main-st tavern for excellent spirits and well-controlled revelry.

Boris Karloff, Guest Spook On Bergen - McCarthy Show

Charlie McCarthy and Edgar Bergen will throw a Halloween party at 8 p. m. Sunday. Guest spook will be Boris Karloff on the program which will be heard over WEAF.

The one man who won't need to come in costume, Charlie says, is his guest Karloff. However, it won't be surprising if McCarthy and Bergen find him assuming his film role of "Frankenstein." In that event, Charlie plans to ride out of the studios on his broom.

Just one jump and two days ahead of the hobgoblins of Halloween, "The Human Adventure" presents a drama of superstition and demology entitled "The Story of Witchcraft," at 9 p. m. Sunday over WOR.

In its dramatic treatment of historical fact, for which this series holds the high award of broadcast merit, the Peabody prize, "The Story of Witchcraft" will concentrate on the 16th century era of witchcraft, recreating the famous torture trials that predated our own Salem witch burnings by more than 100 years.

Rochester gave Jack Benny that sleeping pill, and he'll be dreaming his way back at the races at 7 p. m. Sunday over WEAF. According to the dream, Jack will parlay his winnings up to a half million dollars, which is pretty good, considering he bet $86,000 on "Challenge Me," taking the usual Benny precaution, however, of protectig himself with two dollar bet on the nose of "Texas Sandman."

A figure in a wax museum begins bleeding, then falls over dead after scratching an inscription on the leg of a neighboring statue and "Nick Carter—Master Detective" is plunged into the story, "The Case of the Golden Seed," in the crime-drama broadcast at 5:30 p. m. Sunday over WOR.

Men are said to be more sensitive to color than women.
