

'Letter for Evie' Coming To State Theatre Thursday

Often folks will want to do something, but because they feel that it may put them in the limelight for a good "razing," so to speak, they drop the matter completely and give their whole-hearted attention to something else.

In the film, "Letter for Evie" opening Thursday at the State theatre, the story tells of a girl who slips a note in the pocket of an Army shirt in the factory in which she is employed, discovering she hopes no one will discover. In hopes that some tall, dark, and handsome soldier will get the note, she waits. Never does she realize that she might wind up trying to choose between two men. Mar-ha Hunt plays the role of Evie while Hume Cronyn and John Carroll have the roles of her suitors.

Currently dancing movie fans at the Ohio theatre is the film "Spellbound" with Ingrid Bergman and Gregory Peck. "Quilna"—"Bandit of Sherwood Forest" with Connel Wilde and Anita Louise.

"Sigma"—"I Ring Doorbells" with Anne Gwynne and Robert Shayne; also "Riding on Air" with Joe E. Brown.

"State"—"They Were Expendable" with Robert Montgomery, John Wayne and Donna Reed; also "Dick Tracy".

LYRIC—"State Fair" with Dana Andrews, Dick Haymes, Vivian Blaine and Jeanne Crain; also "Shanghai Cobra" with Sidney Toler.

Radio Editor Makes Debut On 'Ellery Queen' Broadcast

Betty Forsling, radio editor of Newsweek magazine, has reviewed hundreds of programs and interviewed the stars, but never has been on the air. She will make her first broadcast as guest detective for Ellery Queen's "Adventure of the Clue of the Elephant" to be heard at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

Pamela and Jerry North put their heads into the lion's mouth literally and figuratively on "The Adventure of Mr. and Mrs. North" at 8 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

The Norths have "the luck of the Irish" when they pay an innocent visit to the zoo with Sergeant Mullins, his wife and eight children. But even at the zoo the Norths can't dodge trouble. Pam wants to see the lions fed after an exhausted Mullins takes his family home to prepare for a St. Patrick's Day celebration.

When the Andrews Sisters show the "Musical Showroom," takes to the air at 10:30 p. m. Wednesday, famous "stooge" Jerry Colonna will be on hand to recreate his "howling" success, "You're My Everything," and receive the Green Room award.

Dale Evans, another of those Texas girls who made good in the big time, turns up as guest with Bob Crosby on his new airtime show at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

The singing star is currently being seen with Roy Rogers in "Along the Navajo Trail."
