Abundance of Fun In Store For Week-end Movie Goers

Plenty of entertainment is on the docket for this week-end, a host of films of every kind imaginable having been billed for showing. From westerns to musical comedies and back to drama-all find their places for showing Saturday.

At the Sigma theatre movie fans will find a balanced bill of sophisticated comedy and moving drama as "No Time for Comedy" and "City for Conquest" open Saturday. Starring James Stewart and Rosalind Russell, "No Time for Comedy tells an amusing saga of a play-wright who writes four successful hit comedies only to fall under the influence of a glamorous blonde with ideas about changing his writing point of view.

Deanna Durbin returns to the delightful, happy brand of comedy and singing for which she is best known, in her new picture, "Because of Him," which now is showing at the Ohio theatre. The film one of the outstanding entertainment presentations in the caeer of this golden-voiced actiess. Based on an amusing back-stage story, it has a trio of stars giving the film plenty of vigor and vitality. Besides Deanna there are such stars as Charles Laughton and Franchot Tone to hold the spot-

The Bowery Boys are keeping things pretty active at the Quilna theatre where they currently can be seen playing in "Live Wires." How these fellows who, before they changed their names, were "The East Side Kids" and before that were "Dead End Kids" can manage to stir up so much excitement is unimaginable, but after once seeing them in action, you'll understand. Sharing the billing is "A Woman Who Came Back," a mystery thriller starring John Loder and Nancy Kelly.

"Masquerade in Mexico" will bow out at the State theatre Saturday night as the film "Guest Wife" with Don Ameche, Claudette Colbert and Dick Foran, moves in for a few days. The latter film, a comedy feature, will make you laugh until your sides ache and al! because of an innocent "kibble." Now that's a new one and to learn what it is, you'll want to see the
