Kipp Play

St. Raphael's scored five runs in the second inning on two Security errors, a walk and a hit by Otto Breitenbach which scored two runs. Art O'Brien then socked a triple to tally the last three markers with Wayne Knipschield coming in to relieve Bob Goodman as the Security hurler. Knipschield then allowed only one scratch hit the remainder of the distance.

Security tallied two runs in the first and another marker in the second frame. In the last of the seventh Harold Paliz walked, Geier doubled to score Paliz and Goodman raped his third hit of the game to score Geier. The game was called on account of darkness. Harold Paltz had a home run for the Security team earlier in the contest.

Stadium Regs nipped the Kipp in a nine inning thriller, scoring the winning run on hits by Cletus Casey, Paul O'Leary, and Buss Billington.

Wally Sabroif hurled the Brass Works to a 6-1 win over Frank-ie's. He allowed only four hits while the teammates were get-ting 10 off Les Sander. Sabroff and Wolfie Woller had home runs for the winners. The Moose beat Envofile in an
