Variety On Tap Saturday F In All Lima Show Houses

Variety again keynotes the films scheduled in Lima for Saturday showgovers. Technicolor features are to be found in several of the theatres while black and white features prevail at the others. Jane Russell comes to the Sigma theatre, not in the much publicized film, "The Outlaw" but in the film which is certain to put her on the calendar as dramatic. The film is "Young Widow" and tells the story of a young woman tragically separated from her husband by the sacrifice in war, It's a beautifully told and enacted story which is worthy of any screen-fan's time.

Making Warners Brothers' anmiversary of 20 years of sound moving pictures production a memorable one is the film which is helping to celebrate the anniversary, "Night and Day," now at the Ohio, With Cary Grant and Alexis Smith in the leading roles, the technicolor production will be remembered by all who see it.

Another film which will catch the eye of the movie fan on his toes for a good picture is "Centennial Summer" now showing at the Quilna theatre. The show has Jeanne Crain, Cornel Wilde, Linda Darnell, William Eythe, and many others who will help to match, if not go over, the musical hit of last season "State Fair."

Bette Davis returns to Lima in "A Stolen Life," the film in which she plays a dual role and interprets the lives of sister twins, who are, nearly as much unalike as night and day. The film provides plenty of action and mystery. Opening Saturday midnight at the Lyric theatre is "Tell It to the both thrilling films which are worthwhile film-fare for any fan. "Oklahoma Kid" and "Song of the Saddle" are scheduled to open at the Allen theatre where "Sweet Command" with Pat O'Brien and Carole Landis currently are showing. Also featured is "Lure of the Stars" and "Isle of the Dead,"

Wasteland" which will bow out Saturday night. "Hands Across the Border" and "Danger Signal" will open at the Lima Drive-In theatre Sunday as "Christmas in Connecticut" with Dennis Morgan and Barbara Stanwyck opens at the Gloria Drive-In.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.
