

Chiller Feature Due To Open at Lyric Monday

A story which will send chills up and down any screen fan's spine opens at the Lyric theatre Monday under the title of "Then There Were None."

It tells of the dwindling down of a party of ten to nothing and the murder on a near seascale that is happening. Sharing the billing is another thriller-chiller, "Six-Gun Gospel."

In celebration of the 20th anniversary of sound motion pictures the Ohio film "Night and Day" brings to the screen one of the largest rosters of stars and music ever to be recorded on celluloid.

Cary Grant is outstanding in his role as Cole Porter while Alexis Smith, too, turns in a performance of the screen one of the largest rosters of stars and music ever to be recorded on celluloid.

"Centennial Summer" brings technicolor and a host of stars together to present one of the finest screen treats in a long time. With Jeanne Crain, Cornel Wilde, Linda Darnell and William Eythe in the leading roles, the film tells the story on the order of that found in "State Fair" last season but it promises some top entertainment.

Jane Russell is adding to the list of her film fans with her appearance in the Sigma's film, "Young Widow." Louis Hayward has a co-starring role in this film which is of a girl whose marriage is broken by the death of her husband in the war. Her life before seems futile until she slowly recaptures strands of her former career. Shoring the bill is "Queen of Burlesque."

Bette Davis scores again in the film "A Stolen Life," now showing at the State theatre. She has been cast in the role of twins and does a bang-up job playing two parts. Sharing the billing is "Hold That Woman."

"Oklahoma Kid" and "Song of the Saddle" are the films now showing at the Allen theatre. Opening at the theatre Wednesday will be "They Made Me A Criminal" and "Corpus Christi Bandits."

"Scarlet Clue" and "Rosie the Riveter" are due Wednesday at the Lima Drive-In theatre while "The Corn Is Green" with Bette Davis and John Dall are due for opening at the Gloria Drive-In theatre Wednesday.

HOG CHOLERA REPORTED
DELPHOS, Aug. 5—An outbreak of hog cholera in the area east of Ft. Jennings was reported Monday by Dr. E. F. Laman, Delphos veterinarian, when two cases of the contagious disease were discovered. August is a time when hogs must be closely watched if they are not immuned, according to Dr. Laman, who said the disease found at Ft. Jennings was the first discovered here this year. Farmers of the area were warned to confine the porkers to their premises.
