by the Federation of Tax Administrators.

That figure represents a 33.9 per cent increase over the billion-dollar auto fuel tax total in 1941, the previous record year. Biggest factor in the increase was the lifting of war-time driving restrictions. Another was increase in gasoline tax rates by four states during 1945 and by two in 1946.

Philadelphia to Vie with New York—as Port

PHILADELPHIA—(U.P.)—A $45,000,000 expenditure in the next few years will provide the port of Philadelphia with facilities surpassing those of the port of New York.

That's the word from Charles H. Grakelow, city director of supplies and purchases. He said the project, linearing a $3,000,000 pier.

charles H. Grakelow, city di-rector of supplies and pur-chases. He said the project, ficluding a $3,000,000 pier, will permit a 70 per cent in-crease in harbor traffic. Grakelow said the program will be financed by city, state, and federal funds. and federal funds.

Caught from Both Banks. Fish Hangs in Mid-Air

BELVIDERE, III. -- (U.P.) --There were a lot of witnesses to this fish story, since it hap-to this fish story, since it happened in a contest.

Clarence Countryman and Clark Wylde, both 13, each had a line in the city park millarce. They were on opposite sides of the bank.
They felt simultaneous jerks on their lines. They yanked at the same time and up came a 10-inch bullhead.
