MCKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLAM E. McKENNEY A great many people think the taking over of the United States by Texas is a joke, but so far as bridge is concerned. I can tell you that the Texas players think they are the best in the world. The last time I was in Dallas, I had a talk with Col. H. A. Cole, who takes time out from his motion picture business to run the Texas Bridge Association. He said, "Mac, the greatest bridge players in the world are going to come from Texas," At the summer session of the national championships tourna-ment, starting at the end of this week at the Hotel Stevens in Chicago, the Texans will be on hand. Col. Cole said that the play in today's hand is just an ordi-nary one in Texas. But I think he exaggrated a little, as it is one of the present hands I have seen. South's two-heart bid was a shown is the way it happened. The opening lead of the dia-mond queen was won by declarer with the ace, and a diamond tumped in dummy with the Col. Cole said that the play
