Bridgeport has long been noted for its ability to spot a song hit before other cities. Ever since the days of "Sunrise Serenade" and "Pistol Packin' Mama," popular songs have started to become stale n Bridgeport when they're just beginning to click in other cities. And now it looks as though song that became popular in Bridgeport a year ago is just starting to sweep the nation. The song is "Gloria," which Billboard Magazine picks as the hit of the month through its new (and first) recording by Ray. Anthony's band with vocal by Ronny Deauville. Here's Early last fall, Joey Zelle, talented young trumpet-playing maestro of the Casa Ritz orchestra, discovered the tune in a New York publisher's office. It sounded good to him, so he arranged it for Manning Cox to sing and began featuring it on his Saturday night broadcasts from the Ritz Ballroom over WNAB. The song began to click with the Ritz dancers, and it became one of for three years! . . . Tommy Dor-Joey's most-requested tunes. Now, sey's disc-jockey show will switch almost a year later, it makes its debut to the nation via Anthony's Signature record . . . and, just to in Hollywood but will be back east give our fair city something else in time for a Sept. 30 opening at to be proud about, the trombonist in the Anthony band that record ed the tune was Bridgeport's John-ny Soltan, who used to play and sing with the aforementioned Zelle's band

Zelle is planning to feature the song on his first, broadcast of the new season from the Ritz. Meanwhile, Ray Colonari will introduce the Anthony recording on "Ray's Record Review" over WNAB next

Under consideration, too. s a plan for making Sam Donahus's orchestra a permanent band on the show instead of featuring guest bands.

NOBLE SISSLE ON NBC

Noble Sissle, ex-bandleader who made a guest appearance on our "Rock 'n' Rhythm" show over WNAB last month and hinted at a big radio role he was considering, is now heard every Wednesday night over NBC as master of ceremonies on "Swingtime at the Savoy", a fast-moving all-Negro revue featuring Lucky Millinder's band. Thus Sissle is fulfilling one dis-closure he made during our exclusive interview. He also disclosed to our WNAB audience that he and Eubie Blake were planning a Broadway revival of their highly successful "Shuffle Along" revue
