AN AUSTRALIAN cricket player, one Tom Geegan, is to be given a tryout with the league champion Boston Braves. And just as the Braves had got around to playing baseball! Answer to Question No. 3 Yes, from educational standpoint and no, from a biological standpoint. Luckily such men have far more children than those of the same capacity in the top occupations. Their fine children, if given top education, would furnish leaders in the future. It's a pity we do not find and educate every gifted boy and girl—and then help them along somehow (I don't know how) so they could have 3 to 5 children without fear of poverty or disaster.

"But Miss Cornell was an angel, bad days and good, rain or shine. She never left the theater on matinee days. She'd stay ater on matinee days. She'd stay in her dressing room until the evening performance. She'd send out for food, have her dinner right in her room, and she always ordered for me.

"The Lunts were like that, too. They were crazy about stews. The Lunts brought their food from home and I warmed it and prepared it here. There was always a portion for me. Fixing the Lunts' food was a pleasure. Mr. Lunt, being a master cook Mr. Lunt, being a master cook himself, it was served in person himself, it was served in person by him."

Plays come and go, but the people who have known George Pierce backstage apparently never forget. Opening nights are high pressure, with hundreds of telegrams pouring in, but there are always a few for George—like the one on the recent night when "Life With Mother" opened which came from Martha's Vineyard:

"I am always glad you are there holding the fort, dear George." It was signed, Katharine Cornell.
