Q. HOW MANY board members must be present when a veteran is appealing his claim to the Appeal Board? T. A. A. 'The Veterans' Administra-tion says that the Veterans' Appeal Board consists of three members including the chairman. All of these members must be present at a hearing. Two members may be present if the case is under reconsideration.

Q. Why is alternating current used in preference to direct current? B. T.

A. There are several reasons. Briefly, alternating current may be transmitted over longer dis-tances; the equipment is simpler, cheaper and safer to oper-ate, and the maintenance problem is reduced to a minimum, due to the lesser number of

Q. When was the Washington High School Cadet Corps organ-ized in the National Capital? L. T. O.

A. The corps was organized in 1882, when two companies of 50 men each were formed at Cen-tral High School. It made its first public appearance the fol-lowing year, marched in the in-augural parade of President Cleveland, 1885, and was present at the dedication of the ington Monument, 1885. Com-petitive drills began in 1888.

Well, soldier, I'm going back. I've got a two-week furlough to I've got a two-week furiough to rendezvous with what's gone by. Where did you lose your youth? Tell me, and I'll look for it, Maybe I lost mine there, too, in the same crowded hour. I sure mislaid it somewhere.

Answer to Question No. 2
Yes, says psychologist F. M.
Gregg in his "The Growing Personality." He says this is especially true of young people. When they express a disilke for a name such as Frank, Suzanne, Lucille, Irene or Joe it is frequently because this is the name of some love rival or one who has jilted them—with whom they have and you remember that stuff.
One drink, one day off your life.
And then, of course, comes Paris, the glory foxhole of all time. The day we went in there the town went crazy, and no Yank could spend a dollar. Bet you can now, hey soldier?
There will be lots of stops along the way. Rheims and Spa and Luxembourg. And others with names a man couldn't pronounce—and now doesn't want them—with whom they have quarreled—or even one who has excelled them in sports. They "transfer" their dislike of the person to the name. How I still hate the names of those fellows who stole my first girl—and my second, third, fourth, fifth! nounce-and now doesn't want

One I have in mind is the Answer to Question No. 3

Because, as pointed out by Purdue Psychologist F. C.
Thorne, it deflates a person's ego to admit he is so maladjusted he has failed to manage his own mind. While physical illness is often due to one's fallure to follow the laws of health
it does not nuncture his ego to Hurtgen Forest, not so far inside Germany as we'd hoped to be when we got there. Remember the dark tall trees and the half-light, soldier? Oh, it was a forest of dead men, too, that place was, when we got through it at last and came out and saw the sky ergain.

Then we're going on to Frankfurt and Berlin, where they are putting brick back on brick again and talking of "the new Germany." They aren't krauts or Huns or Nazis any more, soldier. They're all Germans again and neace, isn't it wonderful? —and peace, isn't it wonderful? It is while it lasts. But it can

It is while it lasts. But it can wear out mighty quick.
Well, soldier, I guess we all have changed as much as the battlefields. There isn't much use in trying to go back to anything in life, but everybody keeps right on trying. Maybe in the next two weeks I'll see a few old ghosts of something we used to know. used to know.
