Louis was given his first transfusion at the age of seven months when doctors discovered he had Cooley's anemia. This is a rare childhood disease and its victims are unable to replenish fully their own blood.

There is no cure known. They must live on the blood of others or die. And usually they die anyway. But in Loule's wiry 93-pound frame there is a great gusto for living, a stout heart that won't give up.

Pag. U. S. Tel. Off, © 1747 by John F. Dille Co. Answer to Question No. 1

Probably not once in 10 or even once in 50. All marriage counselors agree to this. It is due to wrong education or lack of education before marriage. Much of it can be cured by sound marriage counseling after marriage. All young people should be trained by wise sex education for healthy, happy, normal and sacred sex relations. Yet Psychologist J. T. Landis found it takes six years on the average for couples to achieve satisfactory relations in sex. Some achieve it from the beginning, some never. The unhap-piness and divorces that sex education would prevent is beyond
