Partner's Hand Trumps Ace of Bidder to Make Contract

RECENTLY, on my way to Washington, D. C., I was sitting in the dining car and as I paged through the menu I found today's hand. The author's name was not given, so I cannot give him credit for it.
I have seen many bridge hands where the proper play is to trump your partner's ace. Most of these trick-type hands I have met before, but I must admit I have never seen this play before. The unusual feature of this hand is that you have to trump your own ace, and you have to do it on the very first play. If you do not, you just cannot make your contract.
East and West did some nice bidding to try to keep North from bidding five hearts. However, East probably made a mistake in doubling, as otherwise declarer might have become a little careless in the play.
You can see when West opens with the king of diamonds, declarer can win it with the ace, but if he does he can only get into dummy once. He can lead spades and then take the heart fi-

Tenor Melchior Says N. Y. Opera Career May End

NEW YORK (AP) Lauritz Melchior feels jilted.
Helen Traubel's feelings are hurt.
They both say the Metropolitan Opera has done them wrong.
It seems that the Met has not yet offered them contracts for next season, and they think that the Met should have done so — or at least made preliminary overtures — by now.
Big, jovial Melchior, the Met's leading Wagnerian tenor for 24 years, is so miffed that he says his days at the Met may be over.
"It's sentimental business," he said. "It is like to love a girl very much and have her leave you. It hurts."
His pained remarks yesterday came just three days after Miss Traubel, top Wagnerian soprano for a decade, disclosed that she was upset by the Metropolitan's attitude.
She said she would "proceed with other plans" in view of the Met's failure to discuss a contract with her.
However, it was reported that negotiations for signing on Miss Traubel were going on between her manager and Met officials.
There also were reported plans for re-engaging Kirsten Flagstad, the famed Norwegian soprano who returned to Nazi-held Norway in 1941.
At that time, Miss Traubel stepped into Miss Flagstad's place as the Met's leading Wagnerian soprano.
Melchior said that "unless indicated plans change materially," he would sign his last Metropolitan role tomorrow night.
He said Rudolph Bing, the Met's new manager, had not approached him "for the customary preliminary discussion," and that Bing should have done this before his press conference today on the Met's plans for the 1950-51 season.
Bing has said contract talks usually start in February or March.

IN THE INFANTRY You Sit, Sit, Sit and Watch TV. COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) "Move your chair, Joe. How can I see who's winning this war?" That might become a regular complaint when the Army unfolds its newest wrinkle in armchair training for reservists — by television.
Pretty soon Army reservists can earn retirement credit points by looking at television in groups of 20 or more on Tuesday nights for eight weeks.
Brig. Gen. Francis G. Brink says TV stations will telecast one-hour "command post" training programs. Problems faced by a combat infantry division will be telecast as the reservists sit in comfort.
No sir, Joe. It never was like this in the Army.

What's New at Buffumi R.D.B. Worried about your bumps, bulges and sags? Does muscular soreness, poor circulation, sluggishness, insomnia and tired feet make your outlook less rosy? They do? Well, GOOD! Because our Foundations Department on the third floor has what it takes to banish all these discomforts, and it's called Hollywood Vita-Rol. We know this reads like an old-fashioned patent medicine advertisement, but the difference is that this gadget we'd like to urge you to try really works in most cases—if you MAKE it work. That's the catch. You can't swallow a pill or consume gallons of pink liquid and expect your excess fat and other discomforts to vanish miraculously. If you work at it, amazing results can be obtained with Vita-Rol, but you must use it faithfully day after day—rolling it back and forth with gentle pressure, massaging those bulky spots for at least twenty minutes twice a day. As the days go by, watch the fatty tissue slowly but surely disappear. Unwanted inches will melt off your hips, waist, thighs, Vita-Rol, on sale for $14.95, is a dihedral grooved rubber roller for stimulating manipulation and massage. It is equipped with Underwriter Laboratories Approved heating elements for necessary penetrating warmth. Explicit directions are included with each Vita-Rol telling you how to use it to relieve muscular soreness, poor circulation, constipation, insomnia and tired feet. Latest news in women's lingerie for fashion's newest necklines is the versatile Shutter Bra with its Paris-inspired little "shutters." Flaps atop the cups may be turned down like revers to adorn dresses and bouffants. With shutters open like this you're right in fashion with the bare look. With shutters closed, clasped with a brooch, it's a dainty camisole — and a darn sight warmer! Made of embroidered nylon marquisette in white or champagne-beige, it comes in A and B cups, 32 to 38, at $5. Let us, your favorite store, fit you—Lingerie, third floor, also. We are at Pine and Broadway. Remember?
