TIP O' THE MORNING: The Boston "Pops" orchestra will replace the NBC Symphony on NBC's Monday night schedule beginning Jan. 29.

There was something of a paradox at Music hall Sunday night in the performance of Beethoven's "Trio in C Minor, Opus 1, No. 3" by Louise Lockwood Carpenter, plan-

Louise Lockwood Carpenter, planist; Rudolf Kolisch, violinist, and Ernst Friedlander, cellist.

Fine ensemble music, played as such, it still permitted the piano to be the star of the group, both by its writing and by the forceful yet graceful playing of Mrs. Carpenter. This was especially apparent in the minuet, with its fleet fingering and happy melodles.

The three musicians were completely compatible throughout the work, expressing the happiness of the first movement; the quiet, relaxed beauty of the second's theme and most of its variations, and the fiery vigor of the finale, as well as
