TIP OF THE MORNING: WIBA and WFOV have announced plans for election coverage Tuesday. WIBA will have bulletins starting about 6:15 p. m. and continuing through the evening, with summaries at 10 and 10:15. WFOV will broadcast from the city hall at intervals from 8:10 to 9:30.

Broadcasting-Televasting, "newsweekly of radio and television," this week salutes Manager Kenneth Frederick Schmitt of WIBA and WIBA-FM in its regular department, "Our Respects to..."

"Few managers have been in at the birth and have grown with a station for a quarter of a century as has Schmitt," the magazine says. He "has had only two employers since leaving the University of Wisconsin in 1925." It adds—the original licensee of WIBA and its present operator, the Badger Broadcasting Co.

Kenneth Schmitt joined the Capital Times as an $18-a-week reporter, but within a year had been given the duties of radio editor along with his general news assignments. When the newspaper bought a half-interest in a home-made radio station in 1926, Schmitt was called upon as a part-time announcer, the biographical sketch says.

When WIBA went full-time in 1927, he became program director, announcer, and salesman—and has been with the station ever since.

Among the things credited to Schmitt are these: Helped set up Phil La Follette's radio campaign for governor, daily pickups from the state legislature, and weekly chats in the governor's office.

Pioneered in broadcasting police bulletins from squad cars; Helped select Blue Mounds as the site for WIBA-FM's transmitter; Did "much of the excellent planning for Radio Park," described as "one of the most resplendent broadcasting layouts in the nation"; Helped revive the League of Wisconsin Radio Stations.

Schmitt was born July 23, 1902, at Janesville. He entered the University of Wisconsin as an engineering student after making "some of the highest grades in the school."
