LOOKING AND LISTENING Zany On Air, Hawthorne Very Serious in Real Life

HOLLYWOOD. Anyone who ever heard Jim Hawthorne on his radio shows, or who saw him performing his wild antics on television would be extremely curpled upor meeting this rising surpised upon meeting this rising young comedian. He really isn't like that at all in real life. The fellow is quick witted, as his performances indi-cate—he always has a merry twinkle of devilment in his cyes and he's one of the friendliest fellows you'd ever want to meet. The surprise is, that he also is one of the quietest, most serious minded men in the entertainment His popularity began on his ra-dio show when he presented a mixture of crazy sound effects, recordings played backwards as often as forward, transcribed voice tracks that broke in on con-versations and of course his par-7 versations, and, of course, his par-ticular "Hogan" jargon, which he ticular "Hogan" jargon, which he promises to resume on his new Monday through Saturday KNX-er, five minutes after midnight. Born 30 years ago in Victor, Colo., Hawthorne was exposed to show business when he became commercial artist, doorman and usher for a theater in Denver at the age of 13. Inside of three years, he became assistant mana-ger of three theaters there, and was only 18 when he was named theater manager and put in was only 18 when he was hamed Torme on the "Bandstand Trom theater manager and put in charge of exploitation of the 150 over KLAC (13) at 9, featuring Fox theaters of the intermoun-tain chain.
