

Bill Doudna's SPOTLIGHT University Band

TIP OF THE MORNING: Don Ameche and Eddie Fisher will co-star in a new series to be heard over WIBA and WIBA-FM at 7 p. m. Tuesdays and Thursdays, starting May 5.

WITHOUT FORGETTING the day's religious significance, the University of Wisconsin Concert band furnished a capacity audience with a pleasant afternoon on Palm Sunday.

Prof. Raymond F. Dvorak included in his program a Bach chorale and excerpts from Verdi's "Requiem." In the latter, John Haswell and Barbara Moorhead were the soloists.

Dvorak's handling of the band and the soloists' handling of their voices led the audience hear the vocal sections easily. Miss Moorhead is a most promising soprano; Haswell's tenor showed strain.

Two first performances were on the program—a suite, "La Nouvelle France," by Harold Ruseh of Shawano, and a march, "The Southpaw Director," by Cleve Akey of Wisconsin Rapids.

The suite, like Ruseh's 1952 "Mencemine Indian Sketches," had color and a sound acquaintance with the band's possibilities. All three movements were based on folk music, seldom over-adorned.

Ake's march, dedicated to Dvorak and the university bands, had a catchy, easy-to-learn, and free-swinging vocal section which the audience sang the second time around.

Juliette and Julie Gerke were the pianists in Grainger's "Over the Hills and Far Away" and Bath's "Cornish Khapsody," respectively.

Hadley's "Herod" overture, a couple of marches, and "Echoes from the Rose Bowl," with Don Marcouiller conducting, completed the program.

"TOUR: The band will go on tour April 7-22, playing in Prairie du Sac, Randolph, New Holstein, Milwaukee, West Allis, Racine, Greendale, and South Milwaukee.

TOP AWARD: Highest award at the 39th annual Wisconsin Painters and Sculptors exhibit, which opened Friday night at the Milwaukee Art Institute, went to Richard D. Houghton, Jr., Madison. His painting, "Venus," won the show's Medal of Honor.

Another award not listed previously was a $250 prize to Prof. Robert H. Grilley for an encaustic, "Escape of Balloon."
