TIP OF THE MORNING: The mustachioed portraits of Baraboo's Ringling brothers will adorn the main entrance of "the Greatest Show on Earth" during its 1954 tour.

A full-length documentary film, "Mahatma Gandhi, 20th Century Prophet," will be shown Sunday, May 2, at the Wisconsin Union theater. The screening at 8 p. m. will be sponsored by the India Association of the University of Wisconsin.

Quentin Reynolds is narrator of the film, which was written by Edith Martin.

Critics have described the picture as "tremendously impressive and inspiring," "highly compelling," "forceful and warm," and "a fascinating camera record."

Tickets are on sale at the theater boxoffice.

NAMES IN THE NEWS: A former Prairie du Chien resident, Mary Garding, is Breta Griem's new assistant on "What's New in the Kitchen" on WTMJ-TV. She is a graduate in home economics of the University of Minnesota.

Bob Hells reached his 20th anniversary on WTMJ and WTMJ-TV this month. He started in 1934 after winning an audition contest over 800 other applicants.

Michael Rabin, violinist, will celebrate his 18th birthday May 2 by appearing as soloist with the New York Philharmonic-Symphony orchestra. The concert will be on WKOW. Rabin will play on the New York Herald Tribune News Service.

 Producer Leland Hayward and director Billy Wilder have moved into their new quarters at Warner Bros., and have begun preparations for "The Spirit of St. Louis," the story of Charles Lindbergh's epic solo flight from New York to Paris.

Viveca Lindfors, who is now in London starring on the stage in "White Countess," will return here next month for a starring role with James Cagney and John Derek in "Run For Cover," a western at Columbia. Miss Lindfors will play a Swedish farm girl who falls in love with Cagney.

The studio will begin shooting the film late in May.

Eleanor Parker has been selected to appear in "Interrupted Melody," an MGM release based on the life of Marjorie Lawrence, singer who made an amazing recovery from polio. Jack Cummings will produce the picture.

Luisa Boni, beautiful young Italian actress, has been signed for a leading role in "Land of the Pharaohs," which Howard Hawks is producing and directing in CinemaScope for Warner Bros.

John Ireland will direct and star in "Crashout," a story of sports-car racing to be independently produced by Robert Corman.

Peter Lawford has been signed by producer Alex Gottlieb to star and be a copartner in "Dear Phoebe," a television series about the experiences of a man who writes an advice-to-the-lovelorn column under the name of Phoebe.

Yvonne de Carlo has signed with RKO to co-star with Cornel Wilde in "Where the Wind Dies."
