If a substitute mother is not to be trusted with the control of the children she is the wrong person to carry such responsibility. There are few people who can successfully take on the rearing of another roman's family but there are some. To find them is a very difficult undertaking.

For those working mothers who must find substitutes to replace them, the nursery school is usually the best solution. In these schools there should be teachers and nurses trained for their work. They will safeguard the mental and physical health of the children and they will know the right way to direct and discipline them. Their training and experience command respect and confidence and their authority is unquestioned by the children. It must be respected by the parents of the children if they are to remain in the school.

If the children must stay at home while their mothers work outside. then the people placed in charge ren's mental and physical as well as spiritual health demand this. Surely not too much to ask?

But a television set here, a washto pay, more worries than you will be able to bear.

There was another paragraph in Mrs. Hinkle's letter: "Grandmother did without, but not in this day and age."

I am sure that Grandmother did not fly away to Paris or Buenos Aires on the credit plan. I am almost sure that she did not go to France or Argentine at all unless she WAS very wealthy. And I am just as sure that Grandmother wasn't any the worse for it.

When you come right down to it wasn't Grandmother, in her way, just as well off as we who want to have all the enjoyments and stallment buying and that, as the pleasures of the rich on small in-

Oh sure, Grandmother might have had to go to the well for water, and her bathroom facilities might not have been as commodious as ours. But wasn't she-and Grandfather, too-a pretty husky and healthy sort of a person? Else how come you and I and our families are such husky and healthy people?
I wonder sometimes what the third and fourth generation after us is going to look like. Some people say we won't have any more legs-or very short ones -because we don't walk any more. Perhaps we will all have push buttons on our hodies, and ingrown pocketbooks (like the kangaroo's nouches).

And some day they may even will be a great day!

Cooking's Fun!

FAMILY DINNER Here's a light and refréshing dessert that is nutritious, too.

Swedish Mest Balla—Rice Green Paan Salad—Bread Tray Strawberry Pineapple Trifle—Beverage Strawberry Pineapple Trifle Ingredients: 4 lady fingers, 1-4 cup crushed pineapple, 2 cups milk. package strawberry rennet powder, 1-4 cup cream (whipped and sweetened).

Method: Split lady fingers lengthwise; place 2 halves in each of four dessert glasses. Put spoonful of well-drained pineapple in each glass Warm milk slowly until lukewarm. Corner Hotel Barnum Arcade stirring constantly; test a drop on the inside of your wrist often. When it feels comfortably warm (110 degrees), not hot, remove at once from heat. Stir in entire contents of package of rennet power at one time. Mix until powder is dissolved -not ever 1 minute. Pour at once, while still liquid, into dessert glasses about 10 minutes. Chill. Just before serving, garnish glass with whipped
